

The Cash Box

VOLUME XX—NUMBER 52

SEPTEMBER 12, 1959

Anita Bryant, the young Carlton recording star, meets Robert Preston, star of the hit B'way musical "The Music Man". They're smiling happily over the smash sales of Anita's waxing of "Till There Was You", the lovely "Music Man" ballad which is completing a long and successful run on the charts. Anita, former Miss Oklahoma and a runner-up in the Miss America Contest, stars on the Breakfast Club show over ABC radio. The canary's follow-up release, "Six Boys and Seven Girls" was introduced last week on Dick Clark's Saturday TV'er.

1959-60 B'way Musical Lineup Offers Disk Industry

WEALTH OF NEW MATERIAL

The upcoming musical comedy season promises to be a tremendous one because of the all star songwriting line-ups set to be represented. Among the continually successful names we'll be hearing from this season are: Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein with "The Sound of Music"; Frank Loesser with "Greenwillow"; Arthur Schwartz and Howard Dietz with "Mrs. 'Arris Goes To Paris," Jule Styne, Betty Comden and Adolph Green with "Subways Are For Sleeping" and Bob Merrill with "Take Me Along."

Such an array of songwriting talent should mean a bumper crop of professional, hit potential material—songs with fine melodies and strong lyrics. Will many of these potentially commercial songs be wasted as others have been in recent years or will labels recognize their appeal and take advantage of them? We are all well aware of the fact that teenagers are responsible for most of the singles sales and that many of these show songs will be too sophisticated for this market. But inventive and commercial teen-directed arrangements of the novelty and ballad material could result in solid sales for all companies, not only those who will release the original cast albums. "Till There Was You" is one good example of a show song which couldn't make it when treated in "straight" fashion, but which took off when waxed by Anita Bryant as a rock-a-ballad which appealed to both the teeners and the adults.

There'll be a wealth of pretty melodies coming from the above list of composers and shows, just waiting for commercial presentations to send them soaring on the charts. Why should these wonderful examples of America's popular music become familiar only to the show music coterie when the right commercial touch can give teenagers a good tune and a record company substantial material to work with? Here, also, is a good chance for the industry to recapture the adult market which many say has all but stopped buying singles.

The abundance of material to come from the Broadway Theatre in the coming months deserves the closest scrutinization possible from every record company.

ASCAP—Segal, Armand, Vance]

JIMMIE RODGERS (Roulette 4191)

● Rodgers once again wears his folk-like garb, and both ends—one a rhythmic, one a romantic—can score. Infectious "Tucumcari" concerns a fella on his way to the Arizona city only to find his gal has married another man; "The Night You Became Seventeen" has a lovely melodic line.

"SIX BOYS AND SEVEN GIRLS" (2:30)
[Planetary-Pambill ASCAP—Sigman]

"THE BLESSINGS OF LOVE" (2:19)
[Planetary-Pambill ASCAP—Segal, Vance]

ANITA BRYANT (Carlton 518)

● Thrush, who finally gave "Till There Was You" a chart berth after the song had many disk tries, should make the grade again with the strong "Six Boys And Seven Girls," a tale of a guy who doesn't show-up at his gal's sweet-sixteen party. Date packs a potent ballad punch. Lower lid is an appealing salute to love.

"ARE YOU SORRY?" (2:38) [Advanced ASCAP—Ager, Davis]

"WHAT I DON'T KNOW WON'T HURT ME" (2:24)
[Figure BMI—Lebowski, Lehmann]

JONI JAMES (MGM 12828)

● Chirp's current chart-string-of-clicks should continue via this new MGM offering. Topside, Joni leads off with a fetching ballad-with-a-beat romancer tagged "Are You Sorry?" On the other portion she tenderly caresses "What I Don't Know Won't Hurt Me" a pretty romantic weeper set to a soft bolero beat. Her wistful piping tastefully blends with Acquaviva's chorus and ork on both halves.

"OH! CAROL" (2:12) [Aldon BMI—Greenfield, Sedaka]

"ONE WAY TICKET (TO THE BLUES)" (2:13)
[Aldon BMI—Hunter, Keller]

NEIL SEDAKA (RCA Victor 7595)

● The versatile young writer-singer, who already has a number of clicks to his credit, could have the biggest yet in the captivating, gal-titled original, "Oh! Carol". Sock attention-getters can be found in Neil's winning vocal and mid-deck recitation and the dandy quick beat-with-a-pause gimmick. However, don't overlook the other end, a haunting, fast moving entry dubbed "One Way Ticket (To The Blues)". Potent companion piece but it's "Carol" all the way.

"IT HAPPENED TODAY"
[Calico ASCAP—Skyliners, Rock]

"LONELY WAY"
[Calico ASCAP—Skyliners, Rock]

THE SKYLINERS (Calico 109)

● Either end of the Skyliners' latest for Calico could provide the artists with their click third-in-a-row. Tunes that should follow "Since I Don't Have You" and "This I Swear" into hitsville are tagged "It Happened Today" and "Lonely Way". Former's a happy, up beat romancer while the latter falls into the sad, slow fish beat category. Splendid two-sided assist by Lennie Martin's crew.

"CHEATING BABY" (2:18) [Fire BMI—Robinson, Harrison Lewis]

"DON'T WRECK MY LIFE" (2:53) [Fire BMI—Harrison]

WILBERT HARRISON (Fury 1027)

● The long-awaited follow-up to Wilbert Harrison's "Kansas City" chart-topper hits the wax scene this week and we'll bet our proverbial 'bottom dollar' the artist has another two-market smash on his hands. This one's tagged "Cheating Baby" and Wilbert carves it out with a colorful blues attack, as does the combo-chorus setting. Watch it! Lower lid is a smooth weeper that also rates close r&b-pop scrutiny.

MAXIMILLIAN

(Cub 9046)

B+ "BLOWING MY BRAINS OUT
(Over You)" (2:25) [Allendale BMI—Maxted] Good novelty-rock instrumental headed by pianist Maxi-millian. Title is brought out via the sounds of gun shots. Might get places.

B "GEE BABY, YOU'RE THE UT-MOST" (2:10) [Allendale BMI
—Maxted] Kids can take to this driver, too. Male voice repeats all or part of title.

DEAN HUNTER

(Crystalette 732)

B+ "ROCKIN' BAND" (1:47) [Carsey BMI—Devaney] Hunter and Bobby Hammack ork offer the teeners some solid beat sounds here.
Fine performance (and theme) for hop spins.

C+ "DOUBLE DATE" (1:46) [Carsey BMI—Schaffer, Stella] A lively novelty rocker. Artist is not the WMGM-New York deejay.

DICK RALSTON

(Nu-Clear 4)

C+ "MANY REASONS" (2:10) [Nu-Clear BMI—Persons] A pleasant feel to this straight ballad take. Ralston has a legit voice. Jocks may want to try this outing.

C "BRAND NEW RULES" (1:59)
[Nu-Clear BMI — Persons]
Strong Latin influence on this rhythmic essay.

PAT DODD

(Palette 5032)

B+ "STAG PARTY" (1:54) [Zodiac
BMI—Adams, Barnes] Good fun on this infectious keyboard outing by Dodd, who is appropriately backed by happy chants from a male chorus.
Popping of corks is also included. Can

B "ODDS N' DODDS" (1:38) [Zodiac BMI—Dodd] Another light-hearted on the ivories and again the songsters.

HARRY ELLIS

(Knox 201)

B+ "MANY A NEW DAY" (2:49)
[Williamson ASCAP — Rodgers,
Hammerstein] The fine, neglected ballad from "Oklahoma!" is given a warm and deliberate teen treatment by legit songster Ellis. Soft zither-like instrument gives deck a madrigal sound. Could get places with ex-posure.

C+ "PINK COTTON CANDY KISS-ES" (1:55) [Monument BMI — Ellis] Things liven-up with OK appeal.

ARNIE DERKSEN

(Decca 30964)

B+ "THERE STANDS THE GLASS"
(2:06) [Cedarwood BMI—Pierce, Shultz] Striking pop presentation of the one-time Webb Pierce country click. The fine Derksen vocal is backed by a deliberate beat and chanting chorus. Could move.

B "I'M WITH YOU" (2:22) Acuff-
Rose BMI—Dinning, Thomasson]
Somewhat similar touch to this sentimental. Tender portion.

TUNES

(Swade 102)

B "CLOSE THE DOOR" [Buna
BMI—Frasier, Holt] The middlebeat jumper should be welcomed by the teen set. Good rock voice here is Jerry Frasier.

C+ "MY HEART" (Buna BMI —
Shipp, Holt] Don Holt capably handles the ballad, a throw-back to
"A Fool Such As I." OK teen romantic.

HERB LANCE

(Mala 404)

B "LIKE A BABY" (1:58) [Bob
Abbott BMI—Stone] Songster is strong on the deep blueser, with combo-chorus tagging along in funky style.

C+ "MY GOOD MIND (Went Bad
On Me)" (2:08) [Obie BMI—
Blackwell, Burks] The blues in an up-tempo vein here.

BIG BANGERS

(Riverside 425)

B "BANG!" (2:11) [Melrose AS-
CAP—Scott] Completely whacky
Spike Jones-like instrumental, with the base a piano roll sound. All sorts of sounds pop-up; the novelty jocks will have a field day with deck.

C+ "MAPLE LEAF BANG" (2:30)
[Jury ASCAP — Arr. Phillips]
More uninhibited bits surround the keyboard here.

BILLY BUTTERFIELD &
RAY CONNIFF

(Columbia 41466)

B+ "ROSALIE" (2:33) [Chappell
ASCAP — Porter] Trumpeter
Butterfield and the Conniff ork (no chorus) team in a sprightly rendition of the standard. Butterfield is backed by a fine-sounding shuffle beat. Could mean chart business.

B "SOUTH OF THE BORDER"
(2:21) [Shapiro, Bernstein AS-CAP—Kennedy, Carr] Another standby gets the treatment mentioned above. Both sessions come from the "Conniff Meets Butterfield" LP.

The Cash Box Pick of the Week

"PERSONAL SECRET" (2:01)

[Planetary ASCAP—Kent, Grant, Armand]

"SHY" (2:14) [Ross-Jungnickel ASCAP—Mann, Lowe]

CATHY CARR (Roulette 4187)

● Lark looks presentable for a chart stand on "Personal Secret." Effort is a "quality" teen romantic about "a boy and girl in love," and reading is a warm Latin-rock affair. Many a teen will be in on Miss Carr's "Personal Secret." Lower lid puts performer in a more dramatic beat light.

"PILLOW TALK" (2:10) [Artists ASCAP—Pepper, James]

"INSPIRATION" (2:02) [Daywin BMI—Lubin, Roth]

DORIS DAY (Columbia 41463)

● Lark's newest pairs two more tunes she does in her soon-due flick, "Pillow Talk," in which she co-stars with Rock Hudson. Label recently released two others, "Possess Me" and "Rolly Poly." This release features the title tune, a bright quick beat charmer and "Inspiration," a pretty rock-a-ballad romancer reminiscent of the oldie, "I Wanna Be Loved," Jack Marshall's ork flavorfully backs up on these two strong chart contenders.

"GROWIN' PRETTIER" (2:07) [Wing Ding, Fairfield BMI—Stone]

"YOUNG AND IN LOVE" (2:15) [Swarthmore ASCAP—Craig]

JOHNNY OCTOBER (Capitol 4267)

● Subject of Capitol's 'October in September' promo arrives with his debut pairing for the diskery. And it's a good bet that the teenagers'll have a new wax idol in the coming months. Topside, the youngster, along with a top notch Jesse Stone ork and vocal backdrop, slickly carves out a striking, teen-angled fish-beater tagged "Growin' Prettier." Under end is a flavorful rocker that Johnny and Stone's crew knock out with solid sales authority.

"LOOK AT YOURSELF" (2:32) "THE DANCE WAS OVER" (2:32)

[Asset-Bennie Benjamin ASCAP— [Bennie Benjamin ASCAP—Ben-
Owens, Benjamin, Marcus] jamin, Marcus, Wood]

DAMITA JO (Mercury 71493)

● Damita Jo has what it takes to break into the national spotlight with a lasting power punch. The fabulous song stylist bows on the Mercury label with two potent rock-a-ballad hip-swingers, from the lover's lament school, tabbed "Look At Yourself" and "The Dance Was Over." Excellent choral and string-filled backgrounds for the thrush's trilling performances.

"OH YEAH" (1:55)

"LOVER'S RENDEZVOUS" (2:00)

[Burnt Oak Singing River BMI— [Burnt Oak Singing River BMI—
Pritchett] Pritchett]

TRAVIS & BOB (Sandy 1024)

● Two dynamic rock ballads that can cop chart prizes for the twosome who clicked awhile back with "Tell Him No." "Oh Yeah" has that infectious "Tell Him No" way; "Lover's Rendezvous" is a choice rhythm date. Both make excellent teen sense.

"AFRAID" (2:01)

"MARBLE HEART" (2:02)

[Milene ASCAP—Rose]

[Acuff-Rose BMI—Bryant]

SAMMY SALVO (Imperial 5615)

● Sammy Salvo, who kicked up some territorial dust in the past, could step out on a national level with both ends of his Imperial bow. Sides, dubbed "Afraid" and "Marble Heart" are enticing rock-a-rhythm affairs with heartfelt romantic themes. Ear-arresting vocal and musical supports on two lids with the sound that clicks.

DIANA TRASK

(Roulette 4184)

B+ "SOLDIER WON'T YOU MARRY ME?" (2:29) [Planetary ASCAP—Peretti, Creatore, Rodgers] The folk song is taken for a rhythmic rock ride by the thrush and ork-chorus setting. Della Reese also cut the tune for Victor. Could be a big tune.

B "LOVER IS ANOTHER NAME FOR FOOL" (2:00) [Kahl BMI—Wolf, Raleigh] Contagious Latin-flavored rock beat on this outing. Good sound.

JIMMY JEFFERS

(Fraternity 857)

B+ "DOUBLE SHUFFLE" (1:58) [Buckeye ASCAP—DeWar, Taylor, Hopkins, Jeffers] A choice-sounding combo pounder with a flute making an interesting stand. Could step-out.

B "TEARDROPS FROM MY EYES" (2:10) [Progressive BMI—Toombs] Songster Jeffers presents a country-styled ballad. Jokers are the instrumentalists.

BONNEVILLES

(Whitehall 30,002)

B+ "I DO" (2:25) [Budd ASCAP—Haber] A poignant ballad is warmly related by lead and group. Keyboard comes-up with interesting ripples. Exposure can give deck sales importance. Label is a Westminster affiliate.

B "MAKE BELIEVE LOVIN'" (2:17) [Budd ASCAP—Voss] An R&B-styled rhythm piece that has lots of beat color.

BERT WEEDON

(Top Rank 2012)

B+ "BLUE GUITAR" (2:54) [True Blue Surrey ASCAP—Fotene, Stanton] Slow-beat guitar-featured outing that has something to say to the youngsters. Tune is a reminder of "When My Dreamboat Comes Home." Possibility for success here.

B "BERT'S BOOGIE" (2:09) [Jaro BMI—Weedon] Good slap sound accompanies guitars on another easy-moving item.

THE BEAN BROTHERS

(Port 70015)

B+ "TUH TOO DUH DOO" (2:02) [Rush BMI—Moody, Carroll] A romantic frolic with a Four Coins-type blending. Deck, a sunny, quick beat outing, is loaded with coin-catching potential.

B+ "HONEY BABE" (2:30) [M. Witmark & Sons ASCAP—Steiner, Webster] This half's a rock-swing version of the Art Mooney marcher that popped up on the charts a few seasons back.

NICK TODD

(Dot 15981)

B+ "SAYIN' SOMETHING" (2:35) [Cooga BMI—Singleton] Lots of beat sparkle to this one. Todd tells of a top chick and ork-chorus setting swings out a good beat.

B "AN INVISIBLE MAN" (2:22) [Spoone ASCAP—Schroeder, Gold] A blue ballad in which the fella says he's as good as invisible when with the gal.

DES WILLIAMS & RED COATS

(King 5248)

B "THE BLADENBURG RACES" (2:32) [Lois-St. Lawrence BMI—Munroe, Schubert] The British burning of Washington (five months before the "Battle Of New Orleans") is related from an English point of view by the British-Scotch sounding songsters. Interesting sound.

C+ "ROLL ME OVER ROCK" (2:42) [Lois-St. Lawrence BMI] A hearty rock 'n roll account here.

MIKE CLIFFORD

(Liberty 55207)

B "SHOULD I" (2:16) [Fairway BMI—Bachelor, Stephens] Engaging uptempo work, with songster Clifford getting good sound support from Patience & Prudence and Mark McIntyre ork.

B "WHISPER WHISPER" (1:50) [Mappa ASCAP—McIntyre, Olofson] Sincere calypso-styled ballad pose by Clifford. P&P again back-up nicely.

GRENADIERS

(Splash 801)

B+ "(My Darling) KATHLEEN" (2:22) [Royalty ASCAP—Lisbona, Varnick] Old march favorite is robustly presented by the songsters. Commercial 4/4 that could step-out.

B "MABEL" (2:32) [Royalty ASCAP—Lisbona, Varnick] Informal novelty blend by the boys. Joyful side. Label is a London Records subsid.

ERIC ROGERS

(London 1879)

B "LINGERING LOVERS" (2:00) [Harman ASCAP—Goodwin] Catchy novelty sound from the Rogers ork-chorus. Principal instrument is zither-like and songsters play a sans-lyric role.

B "JOANNA" (2:15) [Keith Prowse ASCAP—Grainer] Much the same picture here. Two inviting, easy-to-take dates.

The Cash Box Pick of the Week

"MY SISTER" (2:10) [Blackwood BMI—Anthony]

"I LOVE YOU SO MUCH IT HURTS" (2:05)
[Melody Lane BMI—Tillman]

AL ANTHONY (Columbia 41462)

● "My Sister" could prove to be Al Anthony's 'stepping stone' to success. On it, the versatile singer-organist displays his fine instrumental talent as he leads the ork and chorus, conducted by Allan Emig, over a happy-go-lucky swinger that builds with a delightful excitement. Chorus hums along and sings the title here and there. Watch it closely. Flipside, Al, along with the entire outfit, demonstrates his winning vocal ways on a wonderful rockin' arrangement of the oldie. Could also take off.

"RAG MOP" (1:50) [Hill & Range BMI—Mills, Anderson]

"THE OLD TWO BEAT" (2:16) [Myers ASCAP—Jaye, Aiena, Perry]

THE JAYE BROS. (Wynne 118)

● "Rag Mop" could do for the Jaye Bros. what it did awhile back for the Ames boys. This revision is taken for a gleeful, dixieland-rock ride and sports a refreshing new set of Italian-dialect lyrics, done up Louis Prima-fashion. Terrific in-person item. Dandy flash-back to 'the old two-beat' vaudeville era completes that happy pairing.

"YOU DON'T KNOW"
(2:00)

[Figure BMI—Zwirn, Gidsasi]

"YOU DON'T KNOW YOUR LOVE" (2:23)

[Lloyd-Logan BMI—Logan, Price]

NAT WRIGHT (ABC-Paramount 10045)

● Look for both cuttings on Nat Wright's 2nd outing for the diskery to put in chart appearances. "You Don't Know" is a solid, quick beat thumper with O.B. Masingill's ork and choral outfit engaging in some fine rock-play, Jackie Wilson-style. On "You Don't Know Your Love" Nat and the group beautifully carve out a dramatic beat-ballad romancer. Powerful coupling. Like 'em both.

"VACATION DAYS ARE OVER" (2:04)

[Danbury BMI—Casamassima, Pettas, D'Ambrisi, DeMasco]

"IT TAKES TIME" (2:03) (Danbury BMI—Bonura, Bonura, Ceroni)

THE ARGYLES (Brent 7004)

● New group socks out an ultra-commercial rafter-shaker tailored for this time of the year. Lid, tabbed "Vacation Days Are Over" is replete with a host of teen-appealing vocal and instrumental tricks. Kids'll love it. Under half's a romancer from the fish-beat dept.

"NO ONE" (2:00) [Music Development BMI—Fisher]

"POOR ME" (1:58) [Music Development BMI—Fisher, Squires]

CHIP FISHER (Addison 15002)

● Chances are the Am-Par-distributed Addison label's gonna be in the chips in the weeks to come. Reason is Chip Fishers' infectious performance of "No One," a catchy novelty rocker with a sad love lyric. Emmets vocal crew, with the standout deep, bubbly-gimmick voice, rounds out a winner. Chanter's lamenting on "Poor Me," an up-tempo entry with a familiar melody, can also kick up a chart fuss.

"ROACHES" (2:04) [Vanderbilt ASCAP—Bradford, Lewis]

"LITTLE MISS STARRY EYES" (1:45) [Buckeye ASCAP—Bare]

JACK LARSON (Fraternity 853)

● "Roaches" is a solid sock rock stint that has a theme of novelty note. Larson starts things off with an imitation of Ed Sullivan telling his audience that his show will have a colony of roaches doing a toe-dance and he then proceeds to belt out a tale about having troubles with roaches since his gal left him. Can click big. Coupler is pleasant upbeat ballad based on the "Mary Had A Little Lamb" tune.

● Big Maybell's "I Understand" and "Some Of These Days" on Savoy have that dual chart look (see R&B reviews).

HOMER DENISON, JR.

(Brunswick 55150)

B+ "CHICKIE RUN" (2:46) [Emory BMI—Halliday, Denison] This interesting, fast-paced session is a lesson in teen automobile safety. Dramatic tale of death resulting from a "chickie run" ends with this advice to those who are challenged to such a race: "It's better to be a live chicken than a dead duck!" Worth lots of "public service" spins.

B "MARCH SLAV BOOGIE" (2:14) [Champion BMI—Halliday, Denison] Familiar Russian melody is the foundation of this light rock swinger.

BILLY FIELDS

(Mercury 71491)

B+ "NO OTHER LOVE" (2:03) [Walt Disney ASCAP—Weston, Russell] A fine rock-a-string vocal on the beautiful melody based on the Chopin Etude. If exposed well, this deck can take-off.

B "THE GREATEST LOVE IN THE WORLD" (2:17) [Joy ASCAP—Packard, Curtis, Goehring] Fields' big voice is well-suited to the "big" ballad. Strong performance.

STEVE CLAYTON

(Medallion 501)

B+ "LET'S TELL THEM NOW" (2:33) [Harvest ASCAP—Mann, Glaser, Glaser] Clayton is a legit-voiced lad who does an honest job on the pleasing sentimental. Hugo Montenegro ork-chorus has a good soft-beat touch. Can make the grade with the jocks.

B "THEY SAY IN TIME" (2:28)

[Harvest ASCAP—Muskin, Alfred] A light Latin beat supports on another fine ballad try by Clayton.

BOB BAKER

(Veeda 4004)

C "LOVELY YOU" (2:11) [LeMarc BMI—Baker] A hymn to her is handled with country-flavored ease by the singer.

C "I MISS YOU" (2:13) [LeMarc BMI—Morris, Baker] A shuffle-beat to this track.

ROCK HUDSON

(Decca 30966)

B "PILLOW TALK" (2:40) [Artists ASCAP—Pepper, James] Popular flick actor debuts as a platter songster with a breezy rendition of the cute flick title tune in which he stars along with Doris Day (she cut song on Columbia). Affable date.

C+ "ROLLY POLY" (2:40) [Artists ASCAP—Doran, Lake] Another good-natured item from the pic (also cut by Doris Day).

DONNY LEE MOORE

(Shelley 1000)

B+ "EMPTY ARMS, EMPTY HEART" (2:32) [Gamut ASCAP—Grace, Levitan] There's a poignancy to Moore's material and performance that could show through on the charts. It's a strong weeper display; better eye this debut outing.

B+ "I'M BUGGIN' OUT, LITTLE BABY" (1:52) [Gamut ASCAP—Moore, Levitan] A blazing rocker, and potent enough to also make a chart stand.

EDDIE SEACRIST

(K&C 100)

B "ABLE ONE" (2:46) [Kentucky BMI—Haynes, Seacrist] An all-instrumental guitar rocker with "bird-calls" ala "Quiet Village." Good sound.

C+ "SILLY TO DREAM" (2:47) [Kentucky BMI—Haynes, Chapman, Seacrist] A ballad with a mysterious "out-of-this-world" feel.

DON RALKE

(Warner Bros. 5104)

B+ "TEEN BEAT" (2:18) [Drive-In BMI—Nelson, Egneian] Authorative rendition of the current Sandy Nelson success on Original Sound. This version of the instrumental could collect important coin.

B "FOUR PACES EAST" (2:20) [M. Witmark ASCAP—Ralke] Wild work with an Oriental flavoring. Might get attention also.

BOB CALLAWAY & CHICKS

(RCA Victor 7593)

B+ "LOOKOUT FOR THE CLOTHESLINE" (2:24) [Tree BMI—Callaway, Neely] Songster-guitarist debuts on Victor with a good narrative-type novelty rocker. Theme is based on the current joke fad: "Lookout for the cliff!" "What cl-i-i-i-f." Good beat backs Callaway. Can happen.

B "NATIVE" (1:56) [Tree BMI—Callaway] Some weird rock sounds in this jungle-type humor entry.

BILLY & GLENS

(Jaro 77006)

B+ "OH BOY!" (2:17) [Nor Va Jak-West, Tilghman, Petty] A hit vehicle for the late Buddy Holly is colorfully revived here. This is bright rock stuff that could do things for ditty again.

B "I BELIEVE IN YOU" (1:52) [Walnut BMI—Panzo, Cambrio] A fine-sounding Latin-rock touch to this good romantic. Can succeed, too.

The Cash Box Best Bets

JOHNNY NASH

(ABC-Paramount 10046)

B+ "BUT NOT FOR ME" (2:15) [New World ASCAP-Gershwin, Gershwin] Songster's polished stylings shine on this easy-swinging version of the Gershwins' evergreen. Tune is featured in the up-coming pic of the same name.

B+ "TAKE A GIANT STEP" (2:17) [Hecht-Lancaster & Buzzell ASCAP-Livingston, Evans] More flick, title-tunestuff here. This one's new fox trot affair that Nash essays with plenty of warmth. Fine Don Costa-led backing on this two-sided deejay delight.

THREE EMOTIONS

(Fury 1026)

B+ "THE NIGHT WE MET" [Vinson BMI-Catalano, May] Boys blend with appealing inventiveness on an inviting ballad. All in all, a date that can show-up strong.

B "THE GIRL I LEFT BEHIND" [Vinson BMI-Catalano, Vecchiarelli] OK sentimental session about a G.I. who returns from overseas and searches for the girl he left behind.

TAB SMITH

(Checker 933)

B+ "BECAUSE OF YOU" (2:35) [BMI BMI-Hamers-stein, Wilkinson] The beautiful Tony Bennett oldie-click is exquisitely essayed by Smith's delicate sax work, surrounded by strings and wordless femme chorus. Lovely interpretation; wonderful mood item.

B+ "NEARNESS OF YOU" (2:33) [Famous ASCAP-Carmichael, Washington] An equally graceful waxing of this lovely evergreen. Once again Smith comes in for an ear-arresting sax solo. Two enchanting sides

JACKIE SHANNON

(Dot 15980)

B+ "LIES" (2:30) [Shapiro & Bernstein ASCAP-Springer, Barris] Plaintive oldie is given a good teen ballad view by the songstress. There's reason to keep tabs on deck.

B "TROUBLE" (2:15) [Tiger BMI-Lieber, Stoller] The performer tries her hand at a belting blueser and comes-across effectively. Growling sax is a good instrumental feature.

ARTHUR PRYSOCK

(Old Town 1073)

B+ "MY FAITH" [Maureen BMI-Davis] Prysock, brother of Red Prysock, does exceedingly well on the inspirational-like romantic. Strings are effectively employed. Worth attention.

B "I WORRY 'BOUT YOU" [Maureen BMI-Mapp] Artist sounds like Al Hibbler on the easy-styled ballad session. Jocks will like.

JESSE & JAMES

(Epic 9331)

B+ "NUMBER, PLEASE" (2:10) [Bayer ASCAP-Spratt, Conley] Song twosome and combo knock out a solid product in which a guy asks for a gal's telephone number. An excitement and vitality that can make it big.

B+ "G.I. ROCK" (2:44) [Bayer ASCAP-Spratt, Conley] Boys pound away again and with solid rock authority. Eye also.

KITTY KALLEN

(Columbia 41473)

B+ "THE DOOR THAT WON'T OPEN" (2:28) [Sequence ASCAP-Shuman, Garson] Thrush could be in chart company with this handclapping rock-swinging. Milton DeLugg ork-chorus provides the bright beat setting. Eye closely.

B "IF I GIVE MY HEART TO YOU" (2:40) [Miller ASCAP-Crane, Brewster, Jacobs] The hit of several seasons back is warmly warbled by the thrush.

SAM FLETCHER

(Cub 9048)

B+ "ONLY HEAVEN KNOWS" (2:19) [Famous ASCAP-Roberts, Katz, Piller] Soft and sincere handling of the inspirational-romantic pretty by the vocalist. LeRoy Holmes' ork-chorus strikes a solid rock-a-string chord. Could make it.

B "BEYOND MY WILDEST DREAMS" (2:30) [Sequence ASCAP-Ballard, Tobias] Approach is in line with the upper track.

DANNY DAVIS ORCH.

(Thunder 102)

B+ "GLORY BUGLE" (1:57) [Shapiro-Bernstein ASCAP-Garson, Shuman, Morris] Joyful spiritual-like handclapper from songster-trumpeter Davis' ork. Davis performs both as singer and trumpeter. Jock spins can do things for this happy effort.

B+ "BEAUTY AND THE BEAST" (1:53) [Jameco ASCAP-Welch, Davis] A "Peter Gunn"-like jazz beat stays throughout side, while the Davis trumpet has a lyrical say. Good sound and one that bears attention.

BILL TRACY

(Del-Fi 4124)

B+ "TAPS TO SUMMER" (2:37) [Maravilla BMI-Tracy, Reagan, Klemer] An interesting goodbye to summer love that is based on bugle taps. Songster does a first-rate vocal stint. An unusual entry that could come through big.

B "YOU'RE MY GIRL" (2:10) [Maravilla Kevin BMI-Tracy, Reagan, Nightingale] Deck has a good teen-ballad sound. Fine string bits. Has the stuff to get teen attention.

JOE HALL

(Global 721)

B "BONGO BEATING BEATNIK" (2:03) [Chris BMI-James, Hall] A steady-beat bongo-rock entry with Hall on vocal explaining he doesn't want to rock 'n roll because he's a "bongo beating beatnik." Has teen appeal.

B "COLD HEARTED WOMAN" (2:01) [Chris BMI-James, Hall] A belt blues warble by Hall and good quick-beat work from the combo.

JERRY NORELL

(Brunswick 55148)

B+ "THE COMIC BOOK HOP" (2:26) [Aldon BMI-Nevins, Kirshner] Songster Norell, discovered in Coral's mailroom, socks one out that introduces various comic book characters who "show-up" at the hop. Infectious combo beat supports. Can be active.

C+ "THE FRESHMAN" (2:12) [Champion Aldon BMI-Norell, Patterini, Kirshner] A freshman falls in love in this semi-dramatic teen sentimental.

HELEN JANE GRAY

(Reed 1023)

C+ "GIMME, GIMME" (2:54) [Double "M" BMI-Ferguson, Ferguson] A New Orleans-based upbeat blueser by the thrush, with the Noojinaires providing the jazz backing.

C+ "TOO LATE FOR TEARS" [Double "M" BMI-Ferguson, Ferguson] Performer is OK on the intimate essay of the plaintive.

BETTY MADIGAN

(Coral 62139)

B+ "TONIGHT, TONIGHT" (2:08) [Angel BMI-Nobles] An old R&B success is appealing revived by the thrush. A tender beat track that can bring back the effort to prominence.

B "JUST AS I AM" (1:44) [Brighton ASCAP-Dee] Something of a spiritual-flavor to this bright romantic stint. Spinable date.

DORSEY BURNETTE

(Imperial 5597)

B "LONELY TRAIN" (2:20) [Alan-Edwards BMI-Burnette] Interesting, haunting ballad essay by songster Burnette. Fine-sounding combo-chorus setting resembles a train in motion. Could move.

B "MISERY" (2:10) [Alan-Edwards BMI-Burnette] Pounding blueser shows both artist and support to good teen advantage.

KOOKIE ZAZOO BAND

(Vista 346)

C+ "ICKA BACKA SODA CRACKER" (1:37) [Walt Disney ASCAP-Ross] Lively kiddie chorus affair on the order of the recent smash, "Children's Marching Song." Kazoos lend good novelty appeal. Can succeed in the kiddie disk field.

C+ "HEY BATTER BATTER" (2:20) [Walt Disney ASCAP-Ross] Kids have a happy rock go at a ditty about baseball.

ROULETTES

(Scepter 1204)

B "HASTEN JASON" (2:00) [Scepter BMI-Galante, Galante, Pointe, Acosta] Quick-paced vocal stint that contains a number of familiar childrens' phrases. Performances by songster and combo is excellent. Could move.

B "WOULDN'T BE GOIN' STEADY" (2:30) [Southern ASCAP-Eisenhauer, Linsley] Team eases nicely through inviting ballad affair.

FIVE KNIGHTS

(Specialty 675)

B+ "YO TE AMO" (2:10) [Venice BMI-T&W Taylor] Colorful rock-a-calypto chore by the songsters. Sound is catchy and loaded with tricky instrumental bits. Should be eyed in both pop-R&B circles.

B "MIRACLE" (2:07) [Venice BMI-T&W Taylor] Good lead is the feature of this pro R&B-styled inspirational. Could move.

CASTALEERS

(Felsted 8585)

B+ "I'LL BE AROUND" (2:24) [Regent BMI-Wilder] Fine, understanding R&B-styled treatment of the lovely standard. Richard A. Jones is the capable lead. Things could happen here.

B "YOU'RE MY DREAM" (2:05) [Glamford ASCAP-Muffs, Muffs, Jones] Boys strut well on the rhythmic romancer. Side has lots of tried-and-true upbeat vocal effects.

SANDY MERRILL

(Variety 1017)

C+ "YOU'RE MY ANGEL" (2:15) [Zavrin & King BMI-Zavrin, Nash] Sentimental upbeat pose by the 17-year old songster, who has an Eddie Fisher-like delivery.

C "TATTLE TALE MOON" (2:00) [Reliable ASCAP-Macell, Kerr] Rhythmic romantic piece by the warbler.

RCA's Rockaway Plant Press 100,000,000th Disk

NEW YORK—The RCA Victor Record Division manufacturing plant at Rockaway, New Jersey, pressed its 100 millionth record last week, it was reported by A. L. McClay, general plant manager for the division.

The record was Morton Gould's new stereo recording of Tchaikovsky's "1812 Overture". As the one-hundred-millionth disk came off the press, it was set aside as a permanent record of the occasion.

The 80-press Rockaway plant has often been used as background for documentary films and lecture-demonstration tours. In operation since 1954, Rockaway produces all record forms.

Victor's Sept. Red Seals Offer Consumers $4 Off On Gould Disk

NEW YORK — The RCA Victor September Red Seal release will be highlighted by a special promotion centering around a new stereo recording of the Tchaikovsky "1812 Overture" by Morton Gould and his Orchestra and Band. The stereo LP, backed by Ravel's "Bolero", will be offered for a limited time at $4.00 off the manufacturer's nationally advertised price. Stereo version will sell for $1.98, as will the monaural. A major advertising and promotion campaign will help to launch the album. The Gould "1812" and the special price story will be featured in full column ads in various consumer publications.

During September and October, Morton Gould will make network TV and Radio appearances to help promote the album. Network radio commercials will also feature the "1812".

RCA Victor is shipping a special "1812" streamer while the album cover itself will feature a "kumklean" sticker telling the price story. Ad mats in various sizes are now shipping to distributors and the "1812" will be the feature album in September in RCA Victor's permanent in-store "blinker" boxes.

Morton Gould's "1812" is being sent to all "Music You Want" radio subscription services and will be distributed to national electronics and loudspeaker manufacturers for use in demonstrating sets. All national reviewers will receive the album along with special press material.

The Red Seal release for September, in addition to the Gould "1812", will include a new performance of the Brahms Concerto No. 2 by Artur Schnabel and Josef Krips and the RCA Victor Symphony; Fritz Reiner and the Chicago Symphony playing the Beethoven Fifth and the Coriolanus Overture; Walton's Facade and Lécocq's Mamzelle Angot, played by Anatole Fistoulari and the Royal Opera House Orchestra, Covent Garden; a performance by young pianist Gary Graffman of the Chopin Ballades, Andante Spianato and Grande Polonaise; an album of classical mood music called Clair de Lune, by the London Proms Symphony, Raymond Agoult conductor; "Hello World" with Eleanor Roosevelt, the Little Orchestra Society, Thomas Scherman conductor; a new performance by Pierre Monteux and the London Symphony Orchestra of the Sibelius Second Symphony; Charles Munch and the Boston Symphony playing Schubert's Symphony in C Major; and a special new six-LP giant called Tchaikovsky Omnibus containing Symphonies Nos. 5 and 6, Violin Concerto, Piano Concerto, Capriccio Italiaen, Nutcracker Suite and excerpts from the Sleeping Beauty in performances by Cliburn, Fiedler, Heifetz and others.

All Red Seal albums will be shipped to "Music You Want" radio stations, stereo recording service and national reviewers, and will receive major advertising support.

Gillette Feted On 15th Anniversary With Capitol

HOLLYWOOD — Capitol Records artist and repertoire producer Lee Gillette last week celebrated his 15th anniversary with the label. The company's top executives and A & R men honored Gillette at a luncheon held in the Executive Board Room on the top floor of the Capitol Tower. Capitol's President Glenn E. Wallichs, who brought Gillette into the firm in 1944, praised the veteran producer for his many contributions to the company's success over the year.

Among other distinctions, Gillette is the producer of the biggest selling single record in Capitol's history, Tennessee Ernie Ford's "Sixteen Tons." With the same artist, he also produced one of the label's biggest album hits, "Hymns," which has reached the million dollar mark (manufacturer's wholesale price) in sales. Other over-a-million singles produced by Gillette include Tex Williams' "Smoke, Smoke, Smoke," Peggy Lee's "Mañana," Ray Anthony's "Dragnet," Nat "King" Cole's "Too Young," Dean Martin's "That's Amore," and Kay Starr's "Wheel of Fortune."

Looking back over his years with Capitol, the veteran producer commented:

"The biggest change in the (record) business since I joined Capitol has been the switch in emphasis from singles to albums. Now, with the tremendous impact of stereo," Gillette continued, "the future seems limitless."

Gillette also emphasized that, "well-established artists like Nat (Cole) and Ernie (Ford), for example, must constantly do new and different things. Of course, there will always be a big market for top artists performing great tunes in the conventional manner. But I also think we have to do a lot of head-scratching to find unusual material and album concepts, and match them up with the appropriate artist."

With Ken Nelson, also a Capitol producer, Gillette is co-owner of radio station KRKS at Ridgecrest, Calif. A former musician and vocalist, Gillette was first hired by Capitol to build up a transcription library and to establish a folk music department.

In addition to Wallichs, other Capitol executives honoring Gillette at the luncheon included Sales & Merchandising Vice President Mike Maitland, A & R producers Dave Cavanaugh, Bill Miller, Ken Nelson, John Palladino and Buck Stapleton, and Roland Fribourghouse of the A & R Department.

Sid Feller Returns To Head Am-Par A&R Department

SID FELLER

NEW YORK — Sam Clark, president of Am-Par Record Corporation, last week announced that Sid Feller, widely known arranger, conductor, composer and recording producer, has assumed his former duties as Director of Popular Artists & Repertoire for ABC-Paramount and APT labels, diskery names for Am-Par.

The announcement marks something of a joyful reunion for Feller and ABC-Paramount, since the musician was the original A & R chief appointed by Clark shortly after the formation of the firm exactly four years ago. Later, when Don Costa was contracted to collaborate with Feller, the duo combined to form the combination which brought the label among the top independents of the industry.

Feller left Am-Par late in 1957 to fulfill some attractive offers as a freelance arranger and producer. Previously, he had gained an enviable stature during a tenure with Capitol Records, notably for his work on some of the Jackie Gleason albums, Dakota Staton releases and a host of others.

With Costa departing the firm last week, Feller will coordinate his A & R activities with his counterpart in the special album production department, Creed Taylor.

Kay Thompson On Signature

NEW YORK — With the release of a single record on the Signature label, "Moscow Cha Cha Cha" and "Das Vidanka," Bob Thiele, president of Handover-Signature Records announced the signing of Kay Thompson as an exclusive recording artist.

In addition to making single records, Miss Thompson will also do albums. Her first single has Kay singing two songs that she wrote in anticipation of Premier Khrushchev's visit to the United States.

Signature is planning a promotional tie-in campaign with Simon & Schuster with the release of Miss Thompson's book in September, "Eloise In Moscow."

The company is also rushing an LP of an actual recording of a party at Miss Thompson's house in which she and her guests discuss her recent trip to Russia.

Thiele stated: "This is an oddball album that has many interesting and humorous surprises."

Sammy Kaye To Open Ballroom

NEW YORK — Sammy Kaye has taken an option on the shuttered Riviera located on Broadway and 53d Street. Most recently this spot was operated by Bill Miller and previously was occupied by the Arcadia Ballroom. Kaye intends to again operate it as a ballroom featuring his own orchestra and other name bands. He also plans to do TV telecasts from the location. The orchestra leader of "Swing 'n' Sway" fame would telecast a weekly dance session and variety show, now in the formative stages.

Kaye is also in negotiation with the three major networks to have their spectacles taped there during the day. Under current plans, he hopes to have the room in full operation by October.

Audio Fidelity Extends 99c Bonus Plan

NEW YORK—Sidney Frey, president of Audio Fidelity, announced last week that because of the overwhelming acceptance and demand for the company's 99¢ summer bonus plan, Audio Fidelity has extended the bonus plan through the month of September. The plan, originally scheduled to terminate August 31, offers any Audio Fidelity record for 99¢ with the purchase of any other Audio Fidelity record at suggested list price ($5.95 monaural, $6.95 stereo).

Frey said that "although we had definitely limited the duration of our unprecedented promotion at the start (August 1st), dealers and distributors throughout the country have called, urgently requesting an extension because of the tremendous increase in traffic and sales which has resulted from this offer. Many dealers late in getting in their orders have been necessarily delayed in getting merchandise into their shops and advertising the offer before the original expiration date. So many orders were received by Audio Fidelity that it was difficult to fill them all in time, and the pressure for extension was so great as to be overwhelming."

The bonus program constitutes an Audio Fidelity Fall plan which is a regular 38.2% plus another 40% bonus discount to dealers. On August 31, Audio Fidelity had received over 600,000 orders on LP and stereo albums, in a ratio of 2 monaural to 1 stereo. Frey feels that this is a strong indication of the growing trend in the record industry toward the general acceptance and purchase of stereo—that stereo is no longer an "exclusive," or "sportscar" product, but rather is becoming an item in common demand such as a washing machine, refrigerator, or lawn mower.

Among the reasons why dealers and distributors have asked for the extension of the bonus program is the desire to take advantage of the heavier volume in the month of September due to returning vacationers and back to school traffic. All dealers who have actively participated, report a phenomenal response and remarkable increase in store traffic, according to Frey.

The Audio Fidelity catalog contains 125 pop and jazz monaural records, and 75 pop, 11 classical, 25 jazz stereo records. The expiration date of the extended 99¢ bonus plan is now definitely set at midnight, September 30, 1959.

Atlantic Releases 2 LP's

NEW YORK—Atlantic Records, in special LP release, announced last week the issue of a new Chris Connor and a Dick Katz album.

"Chris Connor Sings Ballads of the Sad Cafe" is a collection of nine songs with melancholy themes. Backing her are three different instrumental groups, one basically a jazz group, the other two using strings.

Dick Katz, represented with "Dick Katz: Piano & Pen," is the young pianist Atlantic presented in "Jazz Piano International." He has made records with many famous jazz musicians like J. J. Johnson & Kai Winding, Sonny Rollins, Oscar Pettiford, Jimmy Raney, Coleman Hawkins and Buck Clayton. This album features not only his playing, but compositions and arrangements of his as well. Accompanying him are Chuck Wayne or Jimmy Raney, guitar; Joe Benjamin, bass; and Connie Kay, drums.

Sam Clark In Europe

NEW YORK—Sam Clark, President of ABC-Paramount Records, left last week for a one-week stay in Europe to coordinate Ampar's expanded activities throughout France. Clark will have a series of confabs with Ampar reps there.

Decca Declares Dividend

NEW YORK—Directors of Decca Records last week (September 2) declared a regular quarterly dividend of 25 cents per share on the company's capital stock, payable September 30 to stockholders of record September 16.

Myers Into Personal Management

PHILADELPHIA — After many years of helping acts get started in the right direction, James E. Myers, head of Myers Music, Inc., has stepped into personal management and has signed several artists.

Joni Dina, eight year old, has been signed to a five year recording contract with Roulette Records and her first release is "Little Johnny" and "Ding Dong Ding." Little Gracie has been signed with Wynne Records and cut her first session for the label last week. The newest to sign with the office is eleven year old Bobby Barnard. No recording deal has been set as yet although several offers are reportedly being considered.

Jerome On Extensive Tour Of Roulette Distributors

NEW YORK — Irv Jerome, vice-president in charge of sales for Roulette Records, headed for the road last week on his most extensive tour of the label's distributors since joining the company.

The trip, as outlined by Jerome, will cover all phases of the diskery's sales operation and its current August sales program which has been extended until September 25. The main emphasis, however, will be aimed at Roulette sales to rack jobbers. Jerome stated that he plans to meet with the key rack jobbers in every area he will cover and effect a sales policy that will be satisfactory to the rack jobber as well as the Roulette distributor servicing the rack jobber. An agreeable sales policy between the distributor and the rack jobbers must be set in motion according to the exec. "Roulette cannot sit idly by and miss the volume of business that can be realized by the sale of its merchandise thru rack jobbers simply because the distributor refuses to sell to the rack jobber or come to terms with him" he added.

At Roulette's recent national distributors meeting, Joe Kolsky, executive vice-president of the firm, stressed the need for the distributors to go after the rack jobber's business. He pointed out this was true of all Roulette merchandise and especially the label's new low-priced $1.98 and $2.98 classical division Forum Records. He went so far as to indicate that if the distributors did not get the volume of business from the rack jobbers, the label would take steps to garner this business by selling direct.

"We want to avoid by-passing our distributors which is another reason why I am making this tour" is the way Jerome put it. Within the next six weeks Jerome will visit all of Roulette's forty distribution outlets and he concluded by inviting any and all rack jobbers to meet with him and the distributor servicing him while he is in their area.

Australian Action

Nice to see the first American release by our glamorous and talented Diana Trask. We all wish Diana every success with her first American disk on the Roulette label. We tipped some time ago that this girl would be a great success in the United States and judging by news filtering back here from her performance at The Blue Angel, she will reach the top bracket.

RON GILLESPIE

Johnny O'Keefe, one of our leading rock stars, will be seen and heard in a new role on the Johnnie Ray show which starts in a few days. Alan Heffernan from the Lee Gordon outfit tells me O'Keefe will—for the first time on a big show—sing ballads to backings from a 15-piece orch. Candy and Mandy and Shirley Simmonds are on the same bill.

Popular Val Curtis, a star member of the Lee Gordon Company, is at present organising a Victorian country-town tour for Johnny O'Keefe to commence at the completion of the Johnnie Ray bash. O'Keefe leaves here at the end of September for a visit to the United States. If Australian audience reaction can be taken as an indication, O'Keefe should hit the top in America.

Chief of W & G Records Ron Gillespie signed visiting American singer Al Morgan to a recording contract. Morgan is in this country for television performances on GTV-Channel 9 and is also starring in the floor show at Melbourne's classy Chevron Hotel.

The highly-rated U.S. television show "An Evening With Fred Astaire" comes up for screening in Australia this coming weekend; there will be no shortage of viewers for this show.

Several leading record dealers have this week reported an encouraging increase in disk sales. With the spring and summer seasons approaching, retailers anticipate an upsurge in retail sales action.

Distributor turns singer: An unusual and interesting situation has arisen with the first release—on the W & G label—by singer Ken Chard, who is manager of the W & G distributing outlet in Sydney. This new single has "What A Difference A Day Makes" coupled with an original called "I Was Taken." Ken is backed by the Bryce Rohde Quartet; Bryce is the pianist from the Australian Jazz Quintet.

It is almost impossible to read through local trade publications and national weekly magazines these days without coming across featured articles on our leading recording stars. Johnny O'Keefe easily leads the field in this regard; stories on him are appearing everywhere. Others being heavily featured in these articles are Col Joye, Frankie Davidson, Johnny Rebb and Johnny Devlin.

The RCA Record people here are moving great stacks of Presley's "Big Hunk Of Love" but Presley is receiving some hot competition for the No. 1 spot in single sales from Johnny Horton's "Battle Of New Orleans," Conway Twitty's "Mona Lisa," Paul Anka's "Lonely Boy," "Waterloo" by Stonewall Jackson and Lloyd Price's "I'm Gonna Get Married."

RON TUDOR

Ron Hill, who inside a few years built the retail disk sales department of G. J. Coles Store No. 200 in Melbourne into one of that city's biggest outlets, has left Coles to take up the position of sales manager with Planet Records, one of the independent labels.

There are strong stories spreading throughout the trade that Ricky Nelson and Connie Francis are likely to tour Australia before the end of the year. Fabian is definitely set for an eight day visit here—for Lee Gordon—commencing 14th October.

Leonard H. Goldenson, from American Broadcasting-Paramount Theatres, is visiting this country at present with his wife. Your Scribe, Ron Tudor, had a quick chat with Goldenson the other day on television presentation and transmission and he said he was very impressed with TV in this country. His company owns shares in one of the commercial TV stations in Adelaide, South Australia.

Vee-Jay-Abner Extends Fall Album Program

Chicago—prior to his departure to London, England, last week to confer with executives of the Rank Organization. Ewart G. Abner, Jr., Vee-Jay-Abner Records, this city, announced to the trade that he is extending the firm's big Album Fall Special deal for retailers to September 18. The plan includes 13 monaural and 4 stereo LP's.

"Our Fall Special deal has been so terrifically successful thus far," Abner declared, "because of our liberal allowances to our distributors, and dealers all over the country. Traffic in retail stores has been great, according to reports we've received; and, of course, sales figures bear this out to us more and more every day."

"We urge our dealer friends who are not as yet aware of our big Fall plan to contact their distributors immediately," Abner said, "for we will definitely discontinue the big deal no later than September 18."

Abner and Jimmy Bracken, president of Vee-Jay-Abner, planned to London last week to meet with the Rank organization and other co-operative record labels to officially enter the Vee-Jay and Abner labels in the huge world-wide record distributive organization for independent manufacturers.

LP's included in Vee-Jay-Abner's big Fall Special program are (monaural) "Dee Clark"; "I'm Jimmy Reed"; "Rockin' With Reed"; "I'm John Lee Hooker"; "We Bring You Love" by Sarah McLawler and Richard Otto, The Spaniels' "Goodnight, It's Time To Go"; "We Bring You Swing" by Sarah McLawler and Richard Otto, "Uncloudy Day" by the Staple Singers; "The Swingin'est";

UA Fall Plan Extended

NEW YORK—Because of the "enthusiastic" reception United Artists Records has met from distributors with their special fall sales plan, the record company has decided to extend the length of the sales period two additional weeks to September thirtieth.

Lou Krefetz, UA's national sales manager, stated that under the plan, distributors placing orders for UA's August and September releases, receive 5 free albums with every 25 purchased.

United Artists' distributors can select from 25 albums in the pop, jazz, folk and classical fields.

Patti Page In Drama Film

NEW YORK — Mercury vocalist Patti Page has been signed for a starring role in United Artists' forthcoming flick, "Elmer Gantry." Richard Brooks, who wrote the screenplay, will direct the film, and Bernard Smith will be the producer.

"The Harmonizing Four"; "The Swan Silvertones", and Maceo Woods' "Amazing Grace." The 4 stereo albums are "Dee Clark"; "We Bring You Love"; "Uncloudy Day"; "The Swingin'est."

Capitol Establishes Public Relations Dept.

NEW YORK—In a move to increase its effectiveness in the areas of consumer and press relations, Capitol Records has established a formal department of public relations, it was announced last week (September 1) by J. K. Maitland, CRI vice president for merchandising and sales.

To head up the new department, Brown Meggs has been appointed director of public relations. Meggs, who was recently appointed staff assistant for public relations to CRI's merchandising administrator Bill Talant, will now report directly to Maitland. In his new post, Meggs will be responsible for the direction and supervision of all consumer and press relations activities, including those functions formerly handled by a separate press relations department under Vic Rowland, who has resigned from the company.

To head up a new press relations section within the public relations department, Fred Martin, former assistant to Rowland, has been appointed press relations manager. A third key member of the PR staff, to head up a newly organized Capitol News Bureau, will be named in the near future.

In making the announcement, Maitland commented:

"Through this reorganization of the company's various public relations functions, we shall be better equipped to provide the kind of public and press representation expected of a fifty-million-dollar-a-year corporation. Our aim is to establish the most aggressive and wide-ranging PR program in our industry."

Meggs joined Capitol in September 1958, as writer-producer of the merchandising department's monthly album presentations. Before that, he served as a writer of public relations films for major business and industrial firms in the Midwest and East, and as a contributor of articles and fiction to a number of national magazines. Educated at the California Institute of Technology and Harvard College, he is a member of the Writers Guild of America.

Martin joined Capitol in June 1958, as a member of the press relations staff. He had previously served with the National Affairs Staff of News week Magazine in New York. The son of bandleader Freddy Martin, he received his formal education at the University of California at Los Angeles and the New York University School of Journalism.

Thompson Ramo Wooldridge Acquires Bel Canto

LOS ANGELES—Thompson Ramo Wooldridge Inc., prominent in the automotive, aircraft, missile, electronics, and hi fidelity equipment fields, has acquired Bel Canto Stereophonic Recording, Inc., producers of pre-recorded stereo tapes and stereo disk recordings. The announcement was made last week by W. M. Jones, TRW vice president.

Bel Canto becomes a third member of the Thompson Ramo Wooldridge Commercial Electronics Group, which includes Bell Sound Division and Dage Television Division. Bell Sound offers products in the fields of hi fidelity components, amplifiers, tuners, tape decks, cartridge recorders, intercommunication, and public address systems. Dage is a manufacturer of closed circuit television for the commercial and military fields.

Products manufactured under the Bel Canto label include a complete library of pre-recorded stereo tapes as well as a selection of stereo records. Tapes are now being produced in two-track and the newly developed four-track mediums.

In making the announcement, Jones said, "Acquisition of Bel Canto was undertaken because of TRW's belief in the tremendous growth potential in the hi fidelity field, particularly with the advent of stereo tapes in the easy-to-handle cartridge form. Bel Canto has recently released sixty-six four-track stereo tapes for both cartridge and reel-to-reel playback systems."

Russ Molloy, formerly executive director of Bel Canto, will serve as president of the new TRW subsidiary. Former Bel Canto owners and management will take an active part in the continuing organization.

London Lowdown and England's Top 30 Records

The fabulous Victor Borge returned to our screens last night in an hour-long show on BBC. However, although the show started off with a bang, the great Mr. Borge seemed at the end to be more interested in impressing the audience with his piano playing than his humour.

Billy Eckstine starred in the Sunday show from The Prince of Wales last night on Channel 9. Also on the Bill were the King Brothers who, as usual, gave a terrific performance.

Ronnie Hilton may appear on U.S. television at the invitation of Liberace.

Frank Sinatra's waxing of "High Hopes" from the pic "A Hole In The Head" is gaining here. The pic is now on general release throughout the country. Other new entries this week include "40 Miles Of Bad Road," Duane Eddy; "Sweeter Than You," Ricky Nelson; "The Wonder Of You," Ray Peterson; "Twixt Twelve and Twenty," Pat Boone and "Midnight Flyer," Nat "King" Cole.

The Humphrey Lyttelton Band flies to America to-day for concert appearances.

Negotiations are under way for a return trip by Connie Francis early next year. It is hoped she will visit sixteen major provincial towns during a three week visit. Connie has had a pretty hectic trip this time, recording three albums at the E.M.I. studios in London.

BBC's "Drumbeat" Show which was set up in opposition to Channel 9's "Oh Boy" ended its series last Saturday. No plans have yet been made for the show to return at a later date.

Anthony Newley and Bob Cort and his group fly to Copenhagen at the end of this week for a charity performance.

Lonnie Donegan will star in ATV's mid-week "Startime" Show this week. Lonnie is at present appearing in a show at Yarmouth and last week Pye recording managers Alan Freeman and Michael Barclay travelled down there to record a midnight session on the stage of the Royal Aquarium Theatre.

Blues singers Sonny Terry and Brownie McGhee return to this country September 14th for television and concert dates.

Album Reviews

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

"LET'S ALL SING WITH THE CHIPMUNKS"—David Seville and the Chipmunks—Liberty LST 7132 (Monaural & Stereo)

Brimful of musical fun is this first album by Seville and his three mischievous singing chipmunks. Aside from the group's three single hits, "The Chipmunk Song," "Alvin's Harmonica" and "Ragtime Cowboy Joe," the set also contains such kiddie charmers as "Yankee Doodle," "Pop Goes The Weasel," "Alouette" and "Old MacDonald Cha Cha Cha." Great sales potential.

"ON STAGE"—Eydie Gorme—ABC-Paramount 307 & Stereo ABCS 307

The songstress' pro handling of the superior songs here is a listening delight. Tunes such as "Taking A Chance On Love," "But Not For Me," "Get Out Of Town" and "Just One Of Those Things" are expertly explored for all their fine lyrics, and belted vivaciously by Miss Gorme. Don Costa swings energetically behind her. Hot session.

"I GOT RHYTHM"—Johnny Nash—ABC-Paramount 299 & Stereo ABCS 299

Johnny Nash's third album and the first which spotlights his dynamic ability to really swing a song. With arranger-conductor Don Costa's aid Nash proves he can wail a hot item with the best of them. The songs are all bright chestnuts and include "And The Angels Sing," "I'm Beginning To See The Light," "You're Driving Me Crazy" and "Looking For A Girl." Fine talent in a brilliant new light.

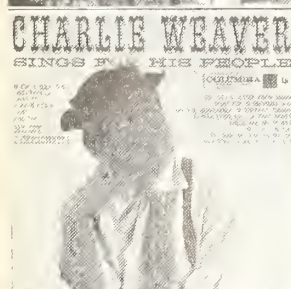

"SWING SOFTLY WITH ME"—Steve Lawrence—ABC-Paramount ABC 290 (Monaural & Stereo)

With the polish and an old pro, Steve Lawrence turns in outstanding performances on a dozen evergreens. He is definitely one of the best young singers around, as demonstrated by his handling of "Let There Be Love," "You're Nobody Till Somebody Loves You," "Speak Low," "There'll Be Some Changes Made" and other class tunes. A real swinging session.

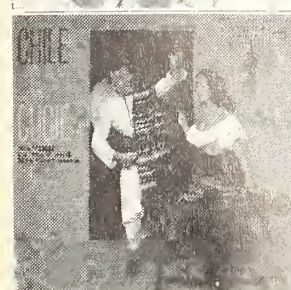

"TO YOU SWEETHEART, ALOHA"—Andy Williams—Cadence CLP 3029

Andy Williams wraps his expressive baritone voice around a dozen Island evergreens and comes up with one of the best of the recent albums paying tribute to our 50th state. Among the selections are "The Moon Of Manakoa," "Blue Hawaii," "Sweet Leilani" and Williams' single hit, "The Hawaiian Wedding Song." Singer's popularity via nitery work and his own TV show will hype sales.

"CHARLIE WEAVER SINGS FOR HIS PEOPLE"—Columbia CL 1345 (Monaural & Stereo)

The popular mainstay of the Jack Paar show is heard on his first disk outing, singing a collection of original nonsense songs based on his comedy routines and his best-selling book, "Letters From Mamma." Selections include "They're Draining Snyder's Swamp In The Morning," "It's Cumquat Time In Mt. Idy," "Gomar, Come Out Of That Sewer" and other favorites. Rib-tickling session.

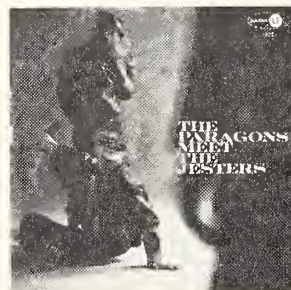

"CHILE CON CUGIE"—Xavier Cugat and his Orchestra—RCA Victor LPM 1987 & Stereo LSP 1987

The earthy, exuberant music of Mexico is vigorously played by the Latin maestro, providing an album full of infectious rhythms and lovely melodies (some very familiar to Americans). The numbers are faithfully reproduced in their original context. Among them are "Alla en el Ranch Grande," "Cielito Lindo," "Ay Jalisco No Te Rajes" and "La Raspa," all of which will be readily recognized. Wonderfully entertaining session.

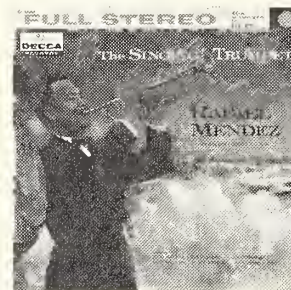

"DANCING AND DREAMING"—The Four Preps—Capitol T 1216 & Stereo ST 1216

A dozen tender love ballads are sensitively surveyed by the Preps, who display a fine harmonic group approach to the music. George Van Eps' guitar and a string choir supply light instrumental backing. Content includes "Somewhere Along The Way," "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes," "I Get Along Without You Very Well" and "I Couldn't Sleep A Wink Last Night." Good mood expression.

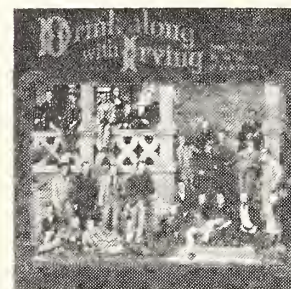

"THE PARAGONS MEET THE JESTERS"—Jubilee JLP 1098

Two rock and roll groups share contents of this package, each singing six songs. The music and performances are tailored for teenage appeal. The tracks, some of which have appeared previously as singles, include "Florence" and "Let's Start All Over Again" by the Paragons and "Please Let Me Love You" and "Now That You're Gone" by the Jesters.

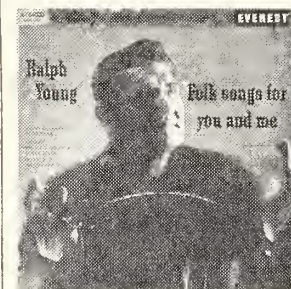

"THE SINGING TRUMPET"—Rafael Mendez—Decca DL 8869 & Stereo DL 78869

Amazing trumpet virtuosity is displayed by Mendez here playing such pop tunes as "Body And Soul" and "I Surrender Dear" and several classical selections including "Une Bel Di" from "Madame Butterfly," Tchiakovsky's "Waltz" from "Serenade For Strings" and a few Mendez originals. The beautifully sweet and melodic trumpet work attracted numerous admirers on the Lawrence Welk show and should fare well sales-wise via this session.

"DRINK ALONG WITH IRVING"—Composed and Produced by Irving Taylor—Warner Bros. B 1323 & Stereo BS 1323

Irving Taylor's latest comedy session for WB is this laugh-provoking delight which pokes fun at the current rash of "sing along" albums among many other hallowed institutions such as school songs ("The Chitlin University Dixie Cup Song"), drinking songs ("You're The Kind Of A Girl Men Remember"), TV jazz ("Mother Goes To Brothers") and others. Album cover makes great comic display piece. Irving at his satirical best.

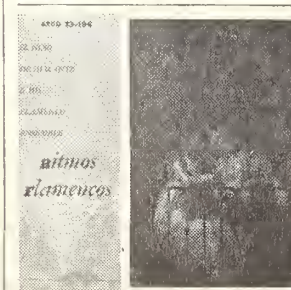

"FOLK SONGS FOR YOU AND ME"—Ralph Young—Everest LPBR 5044 & Stereo SDBR 1044

Young's deeply expressive baritone voice finds some of its ablest vehicles in this collection of songs based on folk influences—songs with much wider appeal than the true, raw folk songs. Original flavor is retained in the music through the use of guitar and harmonica instrumentation. Selections include "Nobody Knows The Trouble I've Seen," "The Lonesome Road," "Hi-lili, Hi-Lo" and "The Silver Dollar Country." Sensitive reading of quality material.

"THE SWINGING LENY EVERSONG"—Seeco CELP 435

One of Latin-America's leading entertainers, Miss Eversong, a Brazilian of unlimited vocal strength, exquisite rhythm and timing, and a diversified repertoire (she sings in Portuguese, Spanish, French and English), debuts here in an album that shows off her various talents. She vigorously tackles such numbers as "Granada," Ellington's "Solitude," "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," "I Want To Be Happy" and "Ca C'est L'Amour." Fine talent.

"RITMOS FLAMENCOS"—El Nino de Alicante & his Flamenco Ensemble—Atco 33-106

Various forms of pure flamenco music are demonstrated by this very capable flamenco troupe led by the guitarist Alicante. The ten tracks are equally divided between guitar solos by the artist and participation by the entire castinet-clicking, foot-stamping, chanting troupe. Exciting, fiery music.

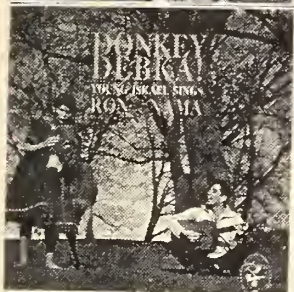

Album Reviews

"BIG BANJO BAND"—Conducted by Bob Dornick—Cub 8004 & Stereo S 8004

A fun-filled musical package that will liven many a party is this banjo spectacular. A dozen memorable chestnuts get the nostalgic treatment via the banjo route and with the aid of good stereo depth produce enjoyable listening. Tunes include "Ain't She Sweet," "Valencia," "Bye Bye Blackbird" and "Limehouse Blues."

"DONKEY DEBKA!"—Ron & Nama—Elektra 173

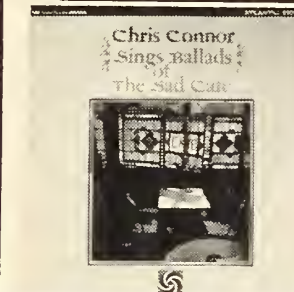

Two young Israeli entertainers produce an enchanting look at present-day Israeli music. Singing enthusiastically and with a refreshing non-folk approach, the duo exudes youthful gaiety, charm and uninhibited spirit. Delightful specialty item.

"BIG BOAT UP THE RIVER"—Brother John Sellers—Monitor MP 505

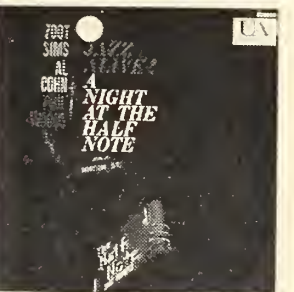

Though still a young man, John Sellers has a feeling for the blues, obtained through personal attachment, that puts him on a par with some of the old time blues singers. Aside from instrumental combo assistance, Sellers accompanies himself on the tambourine, adding an earthy, gospel flavor to some of the songs. Selections, some of which are folk and not blues, include "Feelin' Sad And Blue," "Trouble Is A Woman," "Prison Wall Blues" and "Chain Gang." Good blues outing.

JAZZ PICK OF THE WEEK

"CHRIS CONNOR SINGS BALLADS OF THE SAD CAFE"—Atlantic 1307

Miss Connor attains an extremely personal, and deeply intimate association with the nine sad love songs herein. Her husky voice is a most able purveyor of the sensitive lyrics of "Glad To Be Unhappy," "These Foolish Things," "Good Morning Heartache," "The End Of A Love Affair," and other superior songs. Ralph Sharon, utilizing three different instrumental groups, has arranged and conducted outstanding backdrops.

"JAZZ ALIVE!—A NIGHT AT THE HALF NOTE"—Zoot Sims, Al Cohn, Phil Woods, Mose Allison, Paul Motian, Nabil Totah—United Artists UAL 4040

Recorded in performance at New York's Half Note club where the Sims-Cohn quintet currently holds forth, this album captures the club's relaxed atmosphere via the direct, lyrical jazz statements of tenormen Sims and Cohn. Altoist Phil Woods joins in on side two and adds another important jazz voice. Four tunes are given extended readings: "Lover Come Back To Me," "It Had To Be You," "After You've Gone" and "Wee Dot." Exciting, stimulating jazz with bright sales future.

"RED IN BLUES-VILLE"—Red Garland Trio—Prestige 7157

The creative, imaginative, yet extremely tasteful piano work of Red Garland is heard in an excellent light on the blues numbers here. Sam Jones, bass, and Arthur Taylor, drums, complete the trio, working cohesively behind Garland. Tunes are the old "See See Rider," Basie's new "M Squad Theme," "Trouble In Mind" and three others. Formidable talent is beautifully expressed.

"KELLY BLUE"—Wynton Kelly Trio & Sextet—Riverside 12-298

Kelly, Miles Davis' pianist and one of the top new pianists on the scene, leads his own recording group here on a bill comprised of six blues numbers. The front line features Nat Adderly, Bobby Jaspar and Benny Golson (heard on only two of the tracks) with Kelly, Paul Chambers and Jimmy Cobb holding down the rest of the session. Tunes include "Willow Weep For Me," "Softly, As In A Morning Sunrise," and three Kelly originals. Set offers a good solo look at an important pianist.

"GET THOSE ELEPHANTS OUTA HERE"—The Mitchells, Red Whitey and Blue, Andre Previn—Metrojazz E1012 & Stereo E1012

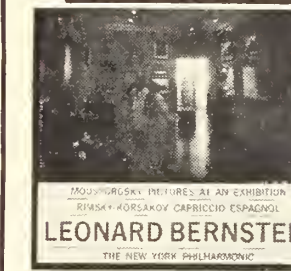

The bass-playing Mitchell brothers, Red and Whitey, are joined by trumpeter Blue Mitchell, Andre Previn, Frank Rehak, Pepper Adams and Frank Capp for insight into the brothers' writing talents and Red's not-too-often heard piano playing. Tunes include three by Red, two by Whitey, and a few of standards: "Moten Swing," "My One And Only Love" and "In The Wee Small Hours Of The Morning." Solid, swinging session.

"COOL FEVER"—The Fletcher Henderson All-Stars directed by Rex Stewart—Urania USD 2012 (Monaural & Stereo)

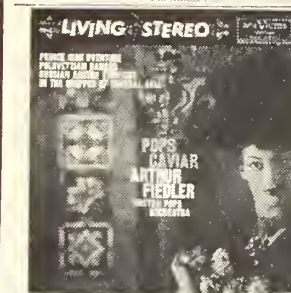

A line-up of important jazz stars, all of whom played with the great Henderson ork, are assembled here for a nostalgic and wildly swinging date. Among the early greats present are Coleman Hawkins, Ben Webster, Emmet Berry, Dickie Wells, Buster Bailey and leader Stewart, all contributing fine solos and group work on such memorabilia as "Sugarfoot Stomp," "King Porter Stomp," "Honeysuckle Rose" and "Round About Midnight."

CLASSICAL PICKS OF THE WEEK

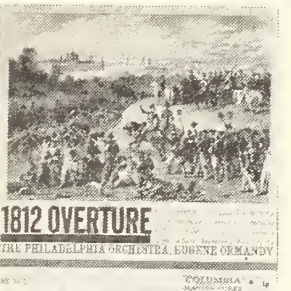

MOUSSORGSKY: "Pictures At An Exhibition"; RIMSKY-KORSAKOV: "Capriccio Espagnol"—Leonard Bernstein conducting the New York Philharmonic—Columbia ML 5401 (Monaural & Stereo)

These two standbys enable the conductor to evoke a brilliant display of color and excitement from his orchestra. Bernstein's flare for the dramatic is firmly substantiated by the work here. Popular classical offering that will sell well.

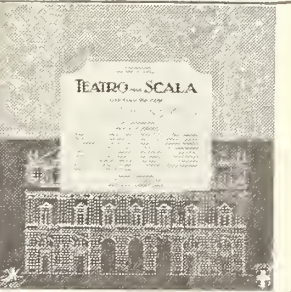

"POPS CAVIAR"—RIMSKY-KORSAKOV: "Russian Easter Overture"; BORODIN: "In The Steppes Of Central Asia," "Prince Igor Overture," "Polovetzian Dances"—Boston Pops Orchestra, Arthur Fielder, conductor—RCA Victor LM 2202 & Stereo LSC 2202

The Pops ork indulges itself in vividly dramatic readings of the reliable Russian works here. Light and popularly accepted, this latest of many recordings of the pieces should do well due to the draw of the Boston Pops.

TCHAIKOVSKY: "1812 Overture"; BORODIN: "Polovetzian Dances," "In The Steppes Of Central Asia"; MOUSSORGSKY: "Night on Bald Mountain"—The Philadelphia Orchestra, Eugene Ormandy, Conductor—Columbia ML 5392 (Monaural & Stereo)

Four staple catalog items are expertly conducted by Ormandy. Featured work is the "1812 Overture," which adds another fine reading of the piece to the already large catalog of the work. Wide commercial appeal.

PUCCINI: "Girl of the Golden West"—Birgit Nilsson, Andrea Mongelli, Joao Gibin, Orchestra and Chorus of La Scala Opera House conducted by Lovro von Matacic—Angel 3593 (Monaural & Stereo)

A definitive recording of Puccini's mildly successful opera. Remarkable performance by Miss Nilsson, with fine performances from Mongelli and Gibin and a capable supporting cast makes for quite interesting listening. For astute opera lovers.

TCHAIKOVSKY: "Piano Concerto No. 1 in B-Flat Minor"—Eugene Istomin, Piano, The Philadelphia Orchestra, Eugene Ormandy, Conductor—Columbia ML 5399 (Monaural & Stereo)

Thoughtful performance of the classic work delivered with great technical assurance by Istomin. The ork, under Ormandy, is at its usual brilliance. Can fare well despite tough competition.

Pickwick Sales Up

NEW YORK—Cy Leslie, president of Pickwick Sales, merchandising arm for Design, Stereo Spectrum, Off Broadway, Cricket, and Instant Learning, announced last week that the combined dollar volume of the labels he represents rose 189% during the first half of 1959 (January thru June) as compared with the same period in 1958.

Leslie stated that this figure does not include Pickwick's foreign language instruction series. Instant Learning which is just going into commercial production at this time.

Biggest factor in the sales rise is the Cricket LP line, Leslie reports. Leslie stated that the sales of his children's albums have been far beyond his expectations. "From the moment we first introduced Cricket Kiddie albums at the Toy Show in March, we knew that we had a fantastic item. Children's records have traditionally been regarded by toy stores, record shops and rack jobbers as strictly a Christmas season item. Further, the kiddie field was 90% singles. Today, all this has been changed. Youngsters have 'graduated' to good, three-speed units and the demand for our Cricket LP's has been strong and steady since they hit the market.

"At the beginning of the year, stereo accounted for less than 25% of our total album sales. Today, this figure is 40% and we feel that it will continue to rise.

"In addition, through our newsstand rack deal, we have increased the number of outlets where our records are sold at the same time that we have added to the variety of our merchandise by constantly building and improving our catalog."

ON THE ROAD—From Vancouver this week comes the report of lots of talent in the city, with The Gaylords ending a three week set at Isy's, and The Platters moving into The Cave for nine days. Following this group will be the Kirby Stone Four. . . . Great crowds each night for Vancouver's Theatre Under The Stars, which has the road tour of "My Fair Lady". . . . In Record Land From Vancouver. . . . Ken Welsh of Quality Records reports in that "Mona Lisa" by Carl Mann still his number one item, with "Morgen" and "Hey Little Girl" breaking very very fast in his market. Although a big record in the east, "Sea Of Love" is just starting to break out on the West Coast, but shows every indication of breaking wide open. . . . Bud Hayden of Phonodisc reports that "Red River Rock" and "With Open Arms" biggest items in quite some time, followed up by "A Girl Like You" by Gary Stites. . . . Knox Coupland of RCA very happy with "Three Bells," and "Makin' Love" by Floyd Robinson. Knox also reports that DJ's swinging along with the many new sing-along type LP's that RCA has by Chet Atkins, and The Ames Bros. . . . In Record Land In Toronto. . . . Todd Armstrong sez he can't keep up with dealer calls on the Edd Byrnes deck, and of course "Till I Kissed You," "Mary Lou" and "I'm A Mummy" all going like wild fire. . . . Lee Farley of Quality tells us that DJ acceptance to the new Mercury LP by Frank D'Rone is sensational. . . . In the singles field, "Caribbean" by Mitchell Torok, really swinging, and of course "What A Difference A Day Makes," "Broken Hearted Melody" and the new Jerry Lee Lewis all headed for the top. . . . Whitey Haines of Capitol busy making the scene with a vast promo on the Band Of The Royal Marines who are in town for the CNE. This is one of the most sought after bands in the business and great crowds are expected at the CNE to see them perform. Whitey reminds us also that "Sweet Bird of Youth" by Nat King Cole breaking up the hit scene, along with "High Hopes" by Frank Sinatra. . . . Harry Maselow of Barrel reports "Happy Lonesome" swinging high and wide, and a new deck called "Sandy" that promises to be the biggest since "Tell Him No." . . . On The Radio Scene. . . . A happy man we met a week or two ago was Johnny Murphy of CKOY in Ottawa. Seems they ran a contest in which the winner would talk long distance to a recording artist. However, when the magic time arrived the star was unavailable, so Johnny came thru with a wonderful interview with the sweet little girl of the "Kookie Kookie" disk, Connie Stevens, and to top it all off is was Connie's birthday party. Johnny's hat is off to her for her wonderful help and cooperation. . . . The talk of the industry is the "Chum Walking Man" contest that caused the biggest traffic jam ever in Toronto. Ten thousand people converged on the main corner of Toronto at noon one day last week to try and spot the "Chum Walking Man" who was carrying $250.00 to give to the first person to identify him.

"Como Swings" In New Victor Pops

NEW YORK — Perry Como's new release, "Como Swings", spearheads RCA Victor's initial September list of pop albums, one of three LP's on their way to distributors.

The new Como album features the star in performances ranging from swing to cool blues numbers. Among the 12 selections are "St. Louis Blues", "Route 66", "Mood Indigo", "Begin the Beguine", "Donkey Serenade", and "You Came a Long Way From St. Louis".

RCA Victor has set up a strong advertising and promotion schedule to back up the album.

The point-of-sale program features blinker box window displays and giant album and artist cover blow-ups. Special Como ad mats are shipping to distributors now.

Disk Jockey promotion, meanwhile, is in full swing with special mailing pieces and miniature golf bags with golf club stirrers off to DJ's.

The radio schedule calls for spots on Network "Monitor" and a series of transcribed spots for local radio while the television campaign calls for network TV commercials and promotion spots.

Additional ad and promotion plans will be tied-in with Como's return to NBC-TV this fall.

Two other albums shipping now are "Songs of Battle" by the Ralph Hunter Choir, and "Just For Kicks" by Bob Thompson and his Orchestra and Chorus.

The Hunter album, recorded by the same group featured in "The Wild Wild West", contains songs from the Revolutionary and Civil Wars, and World Wars I and II. There are 24 selections in all, including "Lili Marlene", "Dixie", "Yankee Doodle", "My Buddy", "I've Got Sixpence", "Over There" and "Comin' In On a Wing And A Prayer".

"Just For Kicks" is conductor-arranger Bob Thompson's first album and features a "wordless chorus," used as part of the instrumentation, backed by jazzmen, including six percussionists. "A Foggy Day", "All Of You", "Angel Eyes", "On The Street Where You Live", and "Bye Bye Blackbird" are among the 14 selections.

Making Sure

NEW YORK — Planetary Music has an interest in both sides of the new Anita Bryant single as a result of a deal between Carlton Records and Planetary prexy Phil Kahl.

Planetary is the original publisher of the lark's new "The Blessing Of Love" side. Carlton's publishing affiliate, Pambill Music, originally had the "Six Boys And Seven Girls" side, but Kahl offered to purchase one-half interest in the song, after hearing Miss Bryant sing it, and for a reputed $7,500 the offer was accepted by Carlton.

Said diskery head Joe Carlton: "We thought it better to have the same publisher working with us on both sides, rather than to have one publisher fighting our firm. Our first concern is to sell records, and this unusual move, we believe, will cement the success of the new Bryant record."

Columbia Auravision To Be Used In Remington Look Advertisement

NEW YORK — Columbia's Auravision, a process for combining sound with printed matter, will be used the December 8 issue of Look, when Remington Electric Shaver runs a hi fi recording page, featuring Bing Crosby, Louis Armstrong, Rosemary Clooney and the Hi-Lo's.

Titled "Music To Shave By", the recording can be played repeatedly on any 33 1/3 RPM player with exceptionally good fidelity reproduction.

The hi fi recording will be the focal point in a major pre-Christmas promotion, representing a million dollars advertising and merchandising expenditure. The campaign has been designed to promote the company's new adjustable Remington Roll-A-Matic.

The two color record page in Look is approximately six inches square, with the circular grooved portion in black, the balance in black and red. The reverse side of the grooved portion contains selling copy on the Remington Roll-A-Matic.

Readers of the supporting newspaper magazine insertion as well as television viewers of "Gunsmoke" will be invited to ask their Remington dealers for a coupon which can be returned to the company for a free copy of the hi fi recording.

Young and Rubicam, Remington's agency, presented the recording page idea to the company as a solution to its search for new methods of relaying its sales story in the highly competitive electric shaver industry. Look Magazine had been conducting experiments with recording pages for several years and was readily able to commit itself to the insertions order.

The entertainers heard in the recording will all be featured in follow-up machine and supplement ads run by Remington.

"Rate The Records" Becomes Daily Feature On WNTA-TV

NEWARK, N. J.—Douglas Rodgers, program director of WNTA-TV, announced last week that as of September 14, "Rate The Records" will become a daily show and will be seen at a new time, 6:30 P.M. to 7:00 P.M.

Rodgers advised that Ken Whalen will continue as the show's director, staging all production numbers of guest artists, and Lee Hasin will remain in his capacity as producer.

The show's basic format will remain the same, reviewing and rating the best of the new record releases, but one change will pit two teenage panels, representing two different high schools, against each other in trying to match The Cash Box's ratings of the record. Album prizes will be awarded to the winning panel.

The Cash Box will continue to work closely with producer Hasin in reviewing and rating the records used on the show.

Rodgers said that he will announce the name of a new MC for the show within the next few days. Hy Lit, former "Rate The Records" host, last week announced that he has severed all business relationships with Lee Hassin & Associates, who managed Lit and produced "Rate The Records." Lit will continue to head his popular "Hy Lit Show" in Philly (WCAU-TV). Lit conducted the "Rate The Records" stint for a year.

Liberty Execs Return From 42-City Tour

LOS ANGELES — A Quartet of Liberty Records executives returned to their home office last week following a forty-two city sales drive which spearheaded Liberty's fall program to new sales records.

General manager Al Bennett, sales manager Don Bohanan, promotion director Don Blocker, and merchandising manager Allen LaVinger concluded a coast-to-coast campaign by announcing the largest sales gains in the history of the organization.

The four huddled during the past three weeks with distributors, sales managers, promotion managers and many retail outlets to spell out Liberty's 10% discount on all stereo and monaural releases plus 100% exchange privilege.

Results, according to sales manager Bohanan, reveal a nationwide upsurge in sales of both singles and LP's.

Allocation of initial 100,000 pressings of David Seville's "Let's All Sing With the Chipmunks" LP was exhausted, says the diskery, during first two weeks of the album's release prior to full nationwide distribution.

Similarly, singles sales have taken a big jump, with Liberty's Bud & Travis single, "Bon Soir Dame" and "Truly Do" scoring big. Also reportedly hot are Joe London's "It Might Have Been" and the Fleetwoods' "Mr. Blue," latter on the Dolton label.

Bohanan predicted a green Christmas for the record industry generally, with Liberty now assured of record-breaking sales during the third and fourth quarters of the year.

Glaser has also set Dorothy Dandridge for engagements at the Palmer House in Chicago and the Waldorf Astoria's Empire Room here.

Clark Hollywood Bowl Show Audience 18,600

HOLLYWOOD—Dick Clark, hosting an all-star cast of the nation's top recording artists, drew a record overflow crowd of 18,600 at the Hollywood Bowl Sunday, August 30. Receipts for the one-night stand totaled $34,200.

A double police force, loudspeakers on the freeways and sold-out signs failed to discourage the 5,000 people who jammed the area and were turned away at the gates.

Frankie Avalon, Anita Bryant, Dody Stevens, Skip and Flip, Duanne Eddy were among the performers who filled the Hollywood bill with Clark. The Hollywood Bowl appearance came during Clark's filming of his first motion picture, "Because They're Young" for Columbia.

Currently, Clark is at the Michigan State Fair through September 6 with a troupe of the top disk artists including: Frankie Avalon, Rusty York, Santo and Johnny, Ray Sharpe, Skip and Flip, Dick Caruso, Freddy Cannon, Jan and Deane, Bobby Rydell, Anita Bryant, The Coasters, Jack Scott, Lavern Baker and Duanne Eddy.

Arnold Records New Chi Philco Distrib

CHICAGO—Morrie Price, president of Arnold Records, this city, announced last week that his firm was appointed by the Philco Corporation to distribute all of their radio receivers and portable phonograph players in this area.

The appointment was made, according to Price, by Reese Llewellyn and Jim Gerrity, of the regional Philco offices.

Other additional lines acquired by Arnold Records are: 20th Fox Records, Whitehall (a subsidiary of Westminster Records), Alpine Records (a subsidiary of Epic) and Dynasty. Earlier this year Arnold acquired the entire Roulette line.

Price also announced that Gerald Yablon joined the organization as treasurer and comptroller. Yablon, who was for 6 years chief accountant of Mercury Records, resigned from that firm last week to join Arnold.

Follow The Leader

NEW YORK—After getting strong deejay-distrib response to the Isley Bros. "Shout" pressing, Mike Collier, national promotion director for Victor A&R men Hugo & Luigi, said last week that the Della Reese Victor debut, "Don't You Know," received a similar reaction.

"I have had to hold back our release schedule for the time being for the sake of my promotion men's blood pressure," said Collier.

The Isley Bros. appeared on the Buddy Deane TV'er (WJZ-TV—Baltimore) three times in one week recently—reportedly the first artists ever to do so.

Eckstine's British Tour Extended To Six Weeks

BEVERLY HILLS—Billy Eckstine's four-week concert tour of England and Scotland has been extended to six weeks, due to reported SRO business wherever the singer has appeared, it was announced last week by his manager, George Greif.

Currently midway through the original itinerary, Eckstine already has been asked to repeat at the Empire Theater, Glasgow, Scotland, where he opened the tour with five days of concerts, August 17. Following this, Eckstine has been asked back to the Hippodrome in Manchester, England, after six days of concerts, which was the second rung of the tour. With Birmingham and Liverpool still ahead of him, Eckstine, more than likely, may end up with an eight-week tour before he is through.

Prior to the English and Scottish dates, Eckstine played four days at the U. S. Army base in Frankfurt, Germany, and they, too, want him back before he returns to the States.

Much of Eckstine's success is due to his solid record sales in Europe and Great Britain. Roulette Records has just released his new album with Count Basie, which also is selling very well. Coupled with record sales, Eckstine has been one of the top jazz favorites abroad for the past eight years. This is his sixth tour of England, and actually he could play Europe and England 52 weeks out of the year, judging from the offers Greif says have been submitted. According to Greif, Eckstine can play no longer than eight weeks abroad because of October commitments here that will carry him through the end of the year.

Wally Robinson Joins BMI Public Relations Dept.

NEW YORK—Wally Robinson has joined Broadcast Music, Inc.'s public relations department, it was announced last week by Russell Sanjek, director of the BMI department. Robinson's career in the communications and entertainment industries spans a twelve-year period, during which time he has been affiliated with United Press, Variety, Columbia Records, and most recently the talent management field. He will headquarter in BMI's New York offices.

Belock Sets Pact With French Firm

NEW YORK—The Belock Instrument Corporation, producers of Everest Records, last week announced that it had signed a contract with the Paris firm, Les Disque de France Festival, to expand the distribution of Everest Records in the foreign market. By terms of the agreement the French organization will open a distributorship for Everest throughout the French Union, Luxembourg, as well as in Belgium and the Belgian Congo, it was announced by Edward Wallerstein, vice-president of the Belock company.

"This increased distribution should aid us considerably in our efforts to offer the hi-fidelity of Everest recordings to music lovers in many parts of the world", asserted Wallerstein. "Recently the Belock company concluded a contract with Rank Records, of London, England, whereby Everest Records will be distributed in the United Kingdom, nations of the British Commonwealth and the Republic of Ireland". Decca is the distributor for Everest in the United States and Canada.

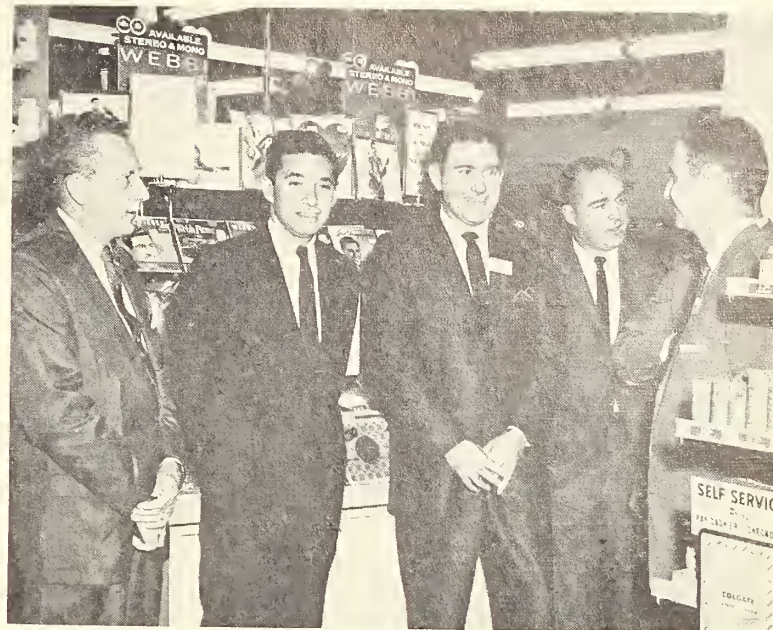

Rubin Joins Atlantic

NEW YORK—Norman Rubin has been appointed regional promotion director of Atlantic and Atco Records, it was revealed last week. Rubin will be on the road, for the most part, working on records with distributors and disk jockeys. Rubin has been Promotion Director of United Artists Records and also did promotion work for George Paxton and Co-Ed Records.

Andrews' Bio On Stage

BEVERLY HILLS—Stage and film rights to The Andrews Sisters' autobiography, "Relatively Speaking," earmarked for early 1960 publication by Argyle Press, have been purchased by Broadway producer Mort Marshall. Plans call for Broadway musical production of the book for fall of 1960, with the Andrews Sisters playing themselves. George Greeley already has been pacted to write the music, and Marshall, who also will direct, is negotiating currently with screenwriter William E. Raynor to do the book and lyrics.

Hard Worker

Alex Bradford To Savoy

NEWARK—Alex Bradford, veteran Gospel-Spiritual singer, and his group have signed a long-term contract with Savoy Records. Bradford and his group will record singles and a special album, with a September 15 release date. Bradford was a strong seller on the Specialty label for six years. His signing with Savoy raises to 35 the number of different groups recording on the Savoy and Gospel labels.

Schroeder-Gold Click

NEW YORK—The new songwriting team of Aaron Schroeder and Wally Gold is currently hot with the following credits: the new Pat Boone, "Fools' Hall Of Fame," and the Diamond's latest, "Young In Years."

In the time they've been together, the team has also written the current Dodie Stevens slice, "Miss Lonelyhearts," Nat "King" Cole's "Sweet Bird of Youth," as well as the title song for the new Dick Clark picture, "Because They're Young." The song will be sung in the flick by Jimmy Darin.

Before the team started to produce, Schroeder had these recent entries with other co-writers: "Twixt Twelve and Twenty," Pat Boone; "Big Hunk of Love," Elvis Presley; "Loveable," Jerry Keller; "Halfway To Heaven," Conway Twitty; two album items, "She Sends Her Regards," in the latest Tommy Edwards LP, and "Young and Beautiful" in the new RCA Victor album, "A Date with Elvis."

Savoy In New Offices

NEWARK—Savoy Records is now officially in its new building on Ferry Street, this city. Their former building was sold to the City of Newark, which intends to convert the property to a parking lot. Herman Lubinsky, prexy, announced that the new building with an area of 23,000 square feet is air-conditioned and up-to-date in "every way."

"I UNDERSTAND"

[Feist ASCAP—Gannon, Wayne]

"SOME OF THESE DAYS"

[Vogel ASCAP—Brook]

BIG MAYBELLE (Savoy 1576)

● Big Maybelle is heard for the first time with strings, expressively essaying two pop evergreens. Both taken at a languid pace, "I Understand" is a lovely wistful ballad, while Sophie Tucker's theme song, "Some Of These Days," is given the growling treatment. Two hot dual-mart sides. Could be back-to-back smash.

"I WANNA BE LOVED" (2:13)

[Conrad BMI—Reed]

"GOING TO NEW YORK"

[Conrad BMI—Reed]

JIMMY REED (Vee-Jay 326)

● Reed can add two more hits to his long list with this solid blues pairing. "I Wanna Be Loved" holds down the romantic end of things while "Going To New York" is in more of an earthy, funky vein. Both of these slow paced items can make a strong showing.

"THE GIRL NEXT DOOR" (2:55) [Fire BMI]

"MY HEART IS SAD" (2:26) [Fire BMI]

EARL LEWIS & THE CHANNELS (Fire 1001)

● Group, which had a territorial click a short while back with "The Closer You Are," bows on the Fire label with Earl Lewis holding down the lead vocal slot. Both sides are attractive rock-a-ballads with the edge going to "The Girl Next Door," which tells of the brighter side of romance. The lament, "My Heart Is Sad," is also a quality session.

Watch for Wilbert Harrison's new Fury release to make that big dual-mart splash (see pop reviews).

FIVE KEYS

(King 5251)

B+ "I TOOK YOUR LOVE FOR A TOY" (2:30) [Roy-Mas BMI—Ingram] Lovely ballad is treated to the Keys' sensitive style. Lead vocalist is a standout. Beautiful effort.

B+ "ZIGGUS" (2:15) [R-T BMI—Toombs, Kids] The Keys' versatility is exhibited here with their delightful reading of this nonsense-lyric rhythm rocker. Sprightly piece of romantic hokum. Both ends can attract attention, pop and r&b-wise.

DON AND DEWEY

(Spot 101)

B+ "FIDDLIN' THE BLUES" (2:32) [Aries BMI—Bowman, Terry] The boys' first Spot outing finds them going straight instrumental. Lid's a medium tempo, rocking blues opus with Don getting some unusual sounds out of his fiddle.

B "SLUMMIN'" (2:34) [Aries BMI—Bowman, Terry] Real soulful and funky session here. Both ends make for good programming pieces.

EDDIE BOYD

(Bea & Baby 101)

B+ "I'M COMMUN' HOME" (2:30) [Ghana BMI—Boyd] Boyd can put in an r&b chart appearance with his solid delivery of this low-down blues lament. Good growling performance.

B "THANK YOU BABY" (2:15) [Ghana BMI—Boyd] Here the scene changes to a driving rhythm number.

THE VOCALEERS

(Paradise 113)

B+ "I NEED YOUR LOVE SO BAD" (2:30) [Hi-Hoss BMI—Dunham] Herman Dunham is featured vocalist here, expressively cuddling this touching rock-a-ballad. Group has the slick pro sound that sells.

B "HAVE YOU EVER LOVED SOMEONE" [Hi-Hoss BMI—Duncan] This end, Joe Duncan steps into the spotlight to hold down lead vocal chores on another tender ballad.

LUCKY EDWARDS

(Nu Kat 115)

B "THE GIRL FOR ME" [Eastwick BMI] Swinging item features an exuberant performance by Edwards.

C+ "LOVE SPEAKS" [Eastwick BMI] Thoughtful consideration is given to the slow moving, big beat ballad.

THE SHAMANS

(Kayham 1)

B "VALLEY OF TEARS" (2:20) [Morey BMI—Gilbert] Expressive weeper is handsomely surveyed by the group.

C+ "SHUBBY DUBBY DOO" (2:10) [Morey BMI—Gilbert] Nonsense lyric, frantic rhythm affair completes the label's bow.

LITTLE NATE

(Johnson 318)

B "SOMEONE UP THERE" (1:30) [Sophisticate BMI—Burknight, Johnson] Attractive, touching theme is tenderly caressed by Nate and the Chryslers. Good r&b sound.

C+ "CRY BABY CRY" (2:24) [Sophisticate BMI—Burknight, Johnson] More fine ballad sounds are essayed by Nate on this half.

THE JADES

(Nau-Voo 807)

B "HEY, LITTLE GIRL" (2:12) [Stella Lane BMI—Brooks] Attractive, quick paced, rhythmic excursion captures the bright outlook.

C+ "WALKING ALL ALONE" (2:23) [Stella Lane BMI—Brooks] Group slows down to thoughtfully explore a quiet lament. Lead vocal stint shines on both ends.

JOHN T. WEBSTER III & ANNA

(Freedom 44022)

B+ "GOTTA MAKE LOVE TO YOU" (1:45) [Metric BMI—Mumford] Frantic shaker with the pair indulging in some ear-arresting, shouting rock play.

B "A MILLION TEARDROPS" (2:00) [Metric BMI—Cochran] Slow, driving rock-a-ballad gets a vigorous treatment.

BOBBY BROWN

(King 5246)

B+ "YOU WOULD ALWAYS BE MINE" (2:08) [Lois BMI—Brown] Inspired reading of a rock-a-ballad love story. Brown's got a feelingful style.

B "PLEADING" (2:29) [Lois BMI—Brown] Another thumping ballad finds Brown in a more vigorous mood.

THE TREYS

(Bella 16)

B "SUGAR BABY" (1:53) [Grey Star BMI—Hamilton] Good group harmony neatly wraps up this rhythm session. Could attract a heap of sales and spins.

B "COME TO ME" (3:02) [Grey Star BMI—Hamilton] More harmonic indulgence by the Treys, here on a rock-a-ballad.

DAN HARRISON

(Joyette 100)

B "PINEY BROWN BLUES" [Leeds ASCAP—Turner, Johnson] OK reading of an old blues number penned by Joe Turner and Pete Johnson. Can pick up territorial coin.

C+ "STRAIGHTEN UP JUICE HEAD" [Derby Town BMI—Harrison, Lewis, Summers] Another earthy blues deck, taken at a medium clip.

PROF. HAROLD BOGGS (Religious)

(Nashboro 647)

B+ "WHEN IT HITS YOU" (2:38) [Excellorec BMI—Boggs] Rousing gospel hymn is carved out by Boggs and a choir. Happy feeling is expertly expressed.

B+ "SWING WIDE OPEN" (2:49) [Excellorec BMI—Boggs] Introspective surveying of another fine gospel number completes a solid religious coupling.

LITTLE RICHARD (Religious)

(End 1058)

B+ "MILKY WHITE WAY" [End, Alan K. BMI—Arr. Goldner] In his new musical endeavor, Little Richard now directs his vigorous and frantic style toward gospel hymns. Here he is his usual deeply expressive self on the oldie. Can move way out.

B+ "I'VE JUST COME FROM THE FOUNTAIN" [End, Alan K. BMI—Arr. Goldner] Another old gospel item is carved out handily by Richard with assistance from an excellent chorus.

THE CASH BOX

BULLSEYE

"BOW DOWN YOUR HEAD AND CRY" (2:26)

[Pamper BMI—Arr. Allan]

"WHEN MY CONSCIENCE HURTS THE MOST" (2:05)

[Moss Rose BMI—McAlpin, Vanadore]

CHARLIE WALKER (Columbia 41467)

● Charlie Walker continues along the hit trail with two more excellent sides that could make it two two-sided hits-in-a-row; his last being "I'll Catch You When You Fall" and "I Don't Mind Saying." "Bow Down Your Head" is a sad folk tale taken at an up-tempo pace while the "Conscience" portion is a weeping romantic ballad. Both are top Walker efforts and should be showing up soon.

"A WOMAN'S INTUITION" (2:19)

[Sure-Fire BMI—Burroughs]

"A TOWN THAT NEVER SLEEPS" (2:15)

[Sure-Fire BMI—Wilburn, Wilburn, Helms]

WILBURN BROTHERS (Decca 30968)

● The usual fine harmony indulged in by the boys is heard on another coupling that should provide follow-up action to their recent "Somebody's Back In Town" and "I Love Everybody" chart pairing. The boys' appealing humor on "A Woman's Intuition," a joyous, lively affair, and their deep sincerity on "A Town That Never Sleeps," a middle beat weeper, should soon find top chart positions.

"FAMILY MAN" (2:57)

[Starday, Bona BMI—Balthrop]

"POPPIN' JOHNNY" [Buna, Starday BMI—Veale, Ward]

FRANKIE MILLER (Starday 457)

● Just completing a long, successful run with "Black Land Farmer," Miller is on the scene with another disk slated for a chart stand. It's a toss up between "Family Man," a sincere opus with a meaningful message, and "Poppin' Johnny," a humorous folk-flavored ditty. Both ends have the click sound.

JIMMY MARTIN (Decca 30965)

B+ "HOLD WHATCHA GOT" (2:25) [Transworld BMI—Martin] Martin's flavorful essay of the true country sound on this quick paced ditty should add it to his long click list.

B+ "SHE'S LEFT ME AGAIN" (2:57) [Cajun BMI — Martin] Here Martin charges to a middle beat weeper, retaining his top hill sound. Two fine sessions in the country tradition.

DUDE RHOMBERG (Summit 112)

B "EITHER YOU DO OR YOU DON'T" (2:25) [Bo-An BMI—Rhombert] The singer nicely handles this lively lament. Tune is taken at a sprightly, up-tempo pace.

B "HOW MANY TIMES?" (2:50) [Bo-An BMI — Rhombert] Here Rhombert takes a more serious approach to the sad love lyrics of this middle beat waltz.

DELL SHIRLEY & JOE BROWN (Logan 3118)

C+ "CLIFF'S ROCKET" (2:17) [Gaylord BMI—Brown, Stratton, Shirley] Fast paced, rocking honky-tonk instrumental.

C "PAPER WAD KID" (2:52) [Gaylord BMI—Brown] OK essay by the pair of an up-tempo teen theme.

CHICKIE WILLIAMS (Wheeling 1001)

C+ "BEYOND THE SUNSET" [AS-CAP—Brock, Brock] Heart-rendering opus is devotedly read by the songstress. Inspiring recitation is featured.

C+ "BRIGHT RED HORIZON" [UNP—Williams] Deeply sentimental ballad. Doc Williams' Border Riders assist on both ends.

LOIS WALTER (Peach 723)

C "YOU CAN'T CALL ME LONESOME" (2:53) [Ralph's Radio Music BMI — Howell, Broadstreet] Easy-going, sentimental romantic, lightly read by the gal and a chorus.

C "SEND A PRAYER TO HEAVEN" (2:34) [Tree BMI—Walter] Fair sacred hymn.

HANK MIZELL AND JIM BOBO (King 5236)

B+ "WHEN I'M IN YOUR ARMS" (2:53) [Lois BMI—Mizell, Bobo, Simonton] Fascinating harmonic duet effectively gets across the sweet words of this quiet romancer. Can attract attention.

B "JUNGLE ROCK" (2:47) [Lois BMI—Mizell, Bobo, Collins, Simonton] Here the duo energetically belts out an all-market rocker.

HAL SMITH (Yucca 116)

B "WHAT DO I HAVE TO LOSE BUT THE BLUES" (2:02) [Fairway BMI—Smith] Smith and the Country Squires feelingfully carve out an attractive, up-tempo tearjerker. Worth spins.

B "HARD HARD TIMES" (2:46) [Fairway BMI — Smith] Hard-hitting country blues is the vehicle here for Smith's sincere approach. Interesting arrangement.

ROLLING JOE JOHNSON (Nu-Clear 8089)

B "DON'T CRY MY HEART" (2:24) [Nu-Clear BMI—Chamberlain, Carson] Johnson pours his heart out on this touching lament. Deeply sincere effort.

B "ONE LONG BURNING KISS" (2:12) [Nu-Clear BMI—Weiss, Jones] The singer turns to the happier side of romance with a rocking exuberance here.

MONA KERRY (Glenn 1501)

B "DON'T HANG AROUND MY DOOR" (2:32) [Hits of Tomorrow BMI—Kerry] Interesting reading of a medium paced heartbreaker.

C+ "STAY AWAY" (2:46) [Hits of Tomorrow BMI—Kerry, Van Meter] Another similar stanza.

NED MILLER (Jackpot 48020)

B+ "GIRL FROM THE SECOND WORLD" (2:25) [Jat BMI—Miller] Miller's sensitive reading of this haunting love ballad recommends the disk for lots of play. Unique femme echo adds to deck's attractiveness. Could be a dual-mart sleeper.

B+ "RING THE BELL FOR JOHN-NY" (3:20) [Jat BMI—Miller] A touching inspirational opus. Side features recitation by Jan Howard, who also duets with Miller on the choruses.

JIMMIE PIPER (Royce 0001)

B "I MET A GIRL (WITH GOLDEN HAIR)" (1:56) [Bo-An BMI—Piper] Cute romantic ditty taken at a quick pace. Piper gets good group support on the chorus chants.

C+ "BONFIRE" (2:29) [Bo-An BMI—Piper, Anderson] Dramatic romantic theme with an unhappy ending.

HAROLD BAILEY (Gira 030)

B "I'M A FOOL" (2:50) [Cedarwood BMI—Bailey] Bailey bows for the new label displaying a sincere approach to the weeping words of the middle beat lilter.

B "I'M GONNA LEAVE" (2:34) [Gilio BMI — Bailey] Another weeper, this time at a quicker pace.

JOE CARSON (D 1083)

C "CARELESS WORDS" (2:08) [Glad, Son-Up BMI — Carson] Fast paced weeper. Large portion given over to instrumental fiddlin'.

C "TIME LOCK" (2:11) [Glad, Son-Up BMI — Carson] Another heart-rendering effort, this time taken at a slower tempo.

CARL STORY (Religious) (Starday 449)

B+ "SET YOUR HOUSE IN ORDER" (1:48) [Starday BMI — Diamond] Spirited inspirational is rousingly delivered by Story and his Rambling Mountaineers.

B+ "OLD GOSPEL SHIP" (1:45) [Starday BMI — Story, York] More joyous gospel sounds from Story and the boys. Two exuberant sacred items that should score in the market.

A GOOD ONERUBY RECORDING CO. 2526 Willow Blvd.
Kalamazoo, Mich.Big August For Americana

WOODLAND HILLS, CALIF. — August was the best month in three years for Americana, the country artist booking firm, according to Americana exec Steve Stebbins.

"We will finish August—normally a slow month—with over one hundred and eighty-six different bookings," Stebbins said. "Numerous times last month," he continued, "there were locations wanting bookings, but there was no talent available."

At present the Americana artist roster consists of George Morgan, Lefty Frizzel, Freddie Hart, Skeets McDonald, Joe Maphis, Tommy Duncan, Doye O'Dell, Farmer Boys, Bonnie Sloan and Ginny Jackson. Firm has a circuit of thirty-two clubs which these artists rotate.

Morgan begins an eleven day engagement in southern California this week (8); Hart and Frizzel play the Salt Lake and Colorado area the 10th and 11th; Hart starts ten days in the Canadian circuit on the 23rd; Frizzel does ten days in Hawaii starting October 1.

"The Young Men's Coin Machine League"!

The editorial which appeared in the July 4, 1959, issue of The Cash Box suggested "The Industry's Young Men Should Take a More Active Part in Setting Industry's Policy and Practices."

It was pointed out that many of the industry's pioneers now have sons or sons-in-law taking an active part in their businesses. It was noted that, in addition, any number of other young, dynamic, energetic men have entered the business.

The editorial's concluding paragraph stated "We feel that these young men should take an active part in determining policy of the industry—and we feel the industry would benefit greatly with the infusion of new young blood with its new ideas and fresh approach to the industry's problems."

A surprising number of comments were received—and from leading "elder statesmen" as well as the "youngsters" indicating their agreement.

We feel sure that the industry's welfare can be enhanced if The Cash Box instituted a "Club", say similar to The Cash Box "20 Year Club", made up of these young men. A good name might be "The Young Men's Coin Machine League". No dues, no regular meetings, no organized group—just a means of interchanging ideas and plans, which could lead to a bigger, better future for the Coin Machine Industry. The Cash Box would be most happy to keep a file of members (similar to the "20 Year Club"). Membership in the "League" would be restricted to those 40 years of age or under.

If you agree, and would like The Cash Box to initiate "The Young Men's Coin Machine League", please fill out the coupon below and mail it back to Marty Toohey (also a "young man" of the industry):

COIN INDUSTRY LOOKS TO BANNER FALL

Manufacturers Release Fall Line

Nation's Economy, New Outlets For Equipment Point To Optimistic Season

NEW YORK—With the approach of Labor Day, official end of the Summer season, coin machine manufacturers, distributors, suppliers and operators were primed for what gives every indication of an immediate increase in business, both with the sale of equipment and business in the various locations.

Following true to form, all games manufacturers have either already introduced new equipment or stood ready to announce the new Fall line. The Fall season is the biggest buying season in the industry, bringing about changes in operator plans and affecting all levels of the industry from operator to manufacturer.

Equipment on Summer location spots was or would be, for the most part, used as trade-in merchandise by operators toward the purchase of new games and music machines. The distributors in turn were on record with definite orders for manufacturers to fill operator sales and at the same time expedite export orders with the trade merchandise from the resort areas.

The Fall season brings about the greatest sales stimulus of the year, in that equipment is traded up from the oldest model on a route to more current equipment, being replaced with late and new models according to the replacement systems used by operators throughout the nation.

Manufacturers were expected to introduce new games designed to stimulate collections on location as business returned to normalcy. Distributors from all sections of the country had already accepted used machines, which will be on location until the end of this week or next, and have shipped new machines to operators replacing present equipment on permanent locations.

The general economy of the nation, temporarily in the shadow of what could have been a major steel strike affecting all industry in the country, has held up in view of the strike, which hasn't shown its effects on industrial buyers as yet. One of the nation's leading steel execs predicts that the strike will be settled between September 15 and October 1. As the crucial period of steel shortage loomed announcements from Washington, D. C., indicated that the Government was setting up a tentative schedule calling for application of the Taft-Hartley injunctions against the strike, should it not be settled by October 1. Reports also indicated that demand for steel is going to be sufficient at the end of the steel strike to assure capacity steel operations for at least six months, according to steel company executives. If agreement can be reached between negotiators, it is believed that the companies will offer non-inflationary concessions to the union. An accelerated steel production at the close of September would spark activity in areas of coin machine operation and thereby offset the effects, if any, caused by the summer layoff.

Summer resort business, particularly at shore locations, was reported in almost all areas to have set record figures. The three-day Labor Day holiday was viewed as an additional stimulus to increase attendance at holiday spots. With a continuance of the hot weather experienced in every part of the country this Summer, business at some resort areas could very well continue for several additional weekends.

Music machine manufacturers continued to increase proportionately the amount of stereophonic machines on production lines with record companies reporting increased pressings on stereo singles, the merchandise necessary to spur sales of the current music equipment. Manufacturers were reporting up to an average of 70% of total production going into stereo, with one firm manufacturing stereo machines, only.

Games manufacturers were geared for a variety of all types of amusement machines — standard money makers, as well as some startling new innovations.

An added note this year is the manufacture of vending equipment and background music—additional lines to the music-game equipment. Distributor sales plans, calling for vending equipment sales on cigarette and coffee machines were set this summer and would be activated with the close of the Labor Day holiday.

A check with distributors throughout the nation showed an optimistic attitude for the coming season, but in almost every area, a tightening up of overhead costs to offset additional expenditures necessary to merchandise the new equipment lines. Sales representatives were expected to spend more time with the operator in his own locale, and in many instances, an accelerated educational program has been worked out by distributors of vending equipment heretofore primed for the sale of music and games only. Several distributors had already expanded sales staffs to accommodate the increased lines and sales promotion programs were expected to be instituted almost immediately.

Another bright spot in view for the cooler weather seasons is the expansion of operations in Bowling Alleys, Super Stores and "Bowlettes". Operators are looking toward greater play in those operations already established, and the opening of further locations in which to install their equipment.

In the final analysis, the outlook is bright for the sale and the operation of coin machines with all levels of the industry sensing an opportunity to take advantage of what indications point to could be a banner year.

FLASH BULLETIN:

IMPORT RESTRICTIONS ON GAMES LIFTED IN BRITAIN

LONDON, ENGLAND—Norman Orleck, vice president of THE CASH BOX, who is traveling in England at this time phoned THE CASH BOX late Friday that import restrictions on games had been lifted in Britain on Thursday, September 3.

Limited import licenses will be issued to English importers for the next 3 months. English wholesalers consider the government's cooperation as "liberal", as all who have applied immediately upon notification were issued permits.

At the present time all of Gottlieb's and Williams' pinball games manufactured during the past 18 months have been available to operators thru Phonographic Equipment Company, the manufacturers' representative. It is estimated that there are some 1,500 post-war machines on location in the country, with some 50,000 more locations available. It is therefore conceivable that the English importers will now find outlets for these 50,000 games as quickly as they can be brought in.

It is also believed many other types of American amusement machines, such as shuffle alleys, bowlers, guns, etc., will also find ready acceptance by English players.

N.Y. State Coinmen Hold PR Dinner Meeting

NEW YORK—The Public Relations Committee of the New York State Coin Machine Association, Inc., this city, held a dinner-meeting on Wednesday evening, September 2, at the Astor Hotel, and unanimously agreed to form a Distributor Committee to function within the province of the overall group.

Al "Senator" Bodkin, chairman, advised that while all coinmen in New York State have been solicited for a five-dollar membership fee, with additional contributions accepted, an additional fund was needed to carry out plans of the committee.

Bodkin called for a meeting of the

New York distributors for Wednesday, September 16, to be held at M.O.N.Y. offices. Bodkin also organized a Program Committee and a Membership Committee.

Following coinmen were present at the meeting: Al Bodkin, Myron Sugarman, Nash Gordon, Meyer Parkoff, Carl Pavesi, Al Denver, Lou Valente, Tom Greco, Ren Grevatt, Gabe Forman, Sandy Moore, George Holtzman, Teddy Blatt, Kenny Luttmann, Amelia McCarthy, Morris Kahan, Joe Orleck and Marty Toohey.

Bodkin scheduled the next general meeting for September 30.

Frankfort International Trade Fair AUGUST 30—SEPTEMBER 3

FRANKFORT-ON-MAIN, GERMANY—The Frankfort International Trade Fair came to a close on September 3 of last week after a five day coin machine convention, the first since the start of World War II. The convention brought coinmen from all over the world to witness the exhibition of foreign and American-made coin operated equipment. Reports from the convention committee indicated that record orders were taken during the course of the convention with every indication pointing to another coin show scheduled for next year. Highlights of the coin convention were as follows:

A 400-selection juke box and a new luxury sound system, built on interior decorator lines were among the high points of the show. Phonographs, games and vendors were on show in quantity for the first time in three years. . . . English ops turned up in force at the coin machine hall, Automaten-Masses, at the fair. . . . There was plenty for visitors to see when the fair opened on Sunday morning and record orders were believed to have been taken at most stands when the doors closed Thursday evening. . . . The stands were larger and more ambitious than anything seen in England and the general impression of the coin machine section was superior to anything seen in post-war Germany. . . . Particularly impressive in the center of the convention hall was the Nova-Apparate exhibit with its line of Rock-Ola equipment. Freddie Adickes was in charge of the stand assisted by his team of Maelstrom, Oderman, and others. . . . Also present were the brothers David and Donald Rockola, sons of David Rockola, president of Rock-Ola Manufacturing, in the U. S. . . . Bill Ruffler was in attendance at the exhibit for two days. . . . Freddie Adickes exhibited a new idea based on an idea pioneered by Heinrich Hecker, in Padderborn and by Automaten Distributors in Britain. The music machine is quite an impressive unit in full stereo and with Rock-Ola wall selection boxes linked to it giving the unit a flavor of the Phonobar-Melodybar idea. The unit is available in 120 or 200-selections and in any color designed to fit in with the location. It will be available shortly through Ruffler and Walker in Britain. Adickes conceived the idea in his Hamburg factory, using indirect lighting in front of the cabinet and in the extension stereo speakers. Adickes expects to market the unit to plush locations above the level of typical music machine spots. . . . Rock-Ola's Austrian distributors from Vienna, Salzburg, Innesbruck, Graz, Villach and Feldkirch were part

Gottlieb Ships "Sweet Sioux" 4-Player

ALVIN GOTTLIEB

CHICAGO—Immediately after returning from a short business trip, Alvin Gottlieb, D. Gottlieb & Company, this city, announced the release of Gottlieb's new four-player pinball amusement machine, "Sweet Sioux."

"Generally, everyone here at the plant, gets excited whenever we release a 4-player pinball game," Gottlieb stated. "However, one thing we're certain of is the fact that 'Sweet Sioux' is definitely the best 4-play competitive play game we've ever produced. It certainly has the winning features, as evidenced by the 6 major scoring features."

There are 5 ways to score 10 times the target value in the Running Light section on the playfield. Also on the colorful playfield, a ball dropping in the purple or yellow hole when lit scores 10 times the target value. A "red arrow" lights to score 10 times target value.

There are 5 rollovers on the playfield which score double the indicated value on the backboard light box. Added features in "Sweet Sioux" include 4 contacts which spin Roto-Targets, a Two-Way double match feature, and 2 super-powered flippers for exciting action skill shots. The game is set for 3 or 5 ball play, with a dime play and quarter play coin chutes."

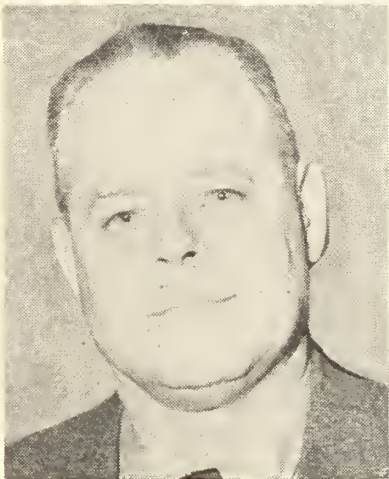

"In one of our Gottlieb slogans," Gottlieb said, "we point out the fact that 'it's more fun to compete'; and, in the case of 'Sweet Sioux' we really stress it. Reports from test locations prove the fact that this game will be a big money maker in all markets. We can't be mistaken because D. Gottlieb & Company always makes certain of results in test locations.

"We are currently shipping 'Sweet Sioux' to all of our distributors in this country and in foreign markets," Gottlieb said in conclusion, "and operators can view the game and judge its worth by themselves."

Games Appts. 2 Distribs

CHICAGO — Clarence Schuyler, president of Games, Incorporated, this city, announced the appointment recently of two distributors to handle distribution for the firm's electronic upright games "Wild Cat" and "Twin Wild Cat" in their respective territories. They are: Morris Novelty Co., 3007 Olive Street, St. Louis, Missouri;

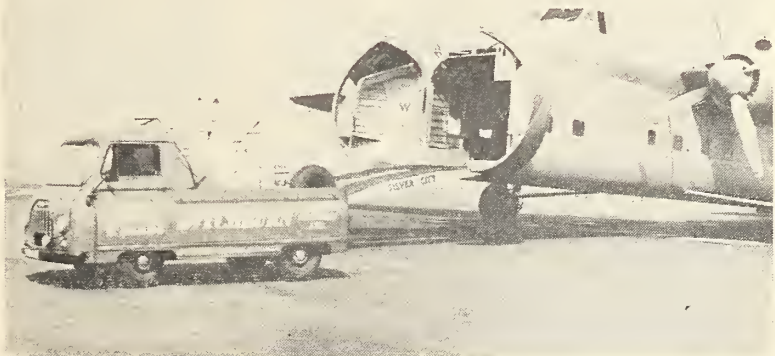

CLARENCE SCHUYLER

and Northwest Sales Company, 171 Grant Street, Woodburn, Oregon.

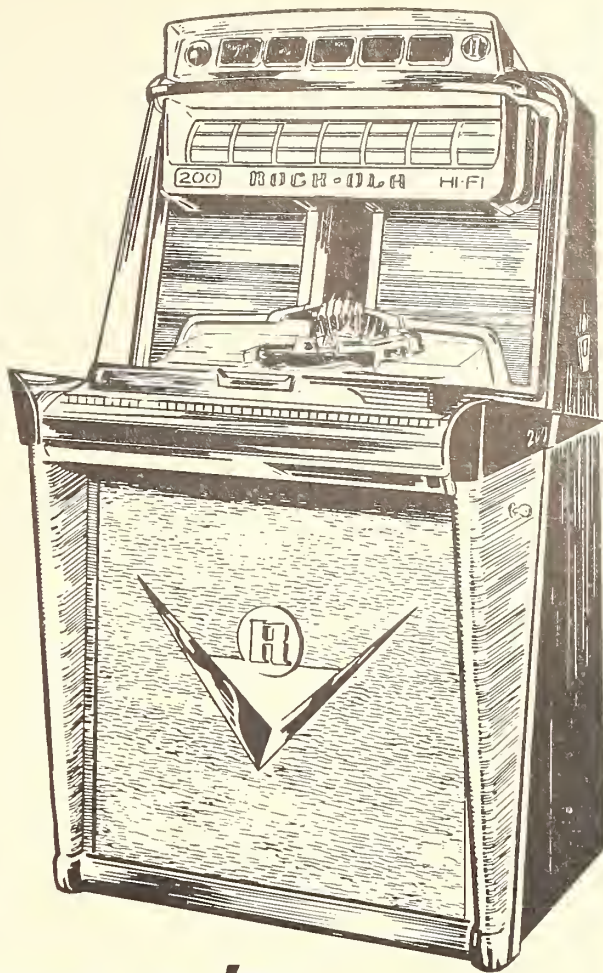

Morris Novelty Company, which is managed by Ben Axelrod, was given the entire state of Missouri as its territory. Northwest Sales Company, managed by Marshall McKee, was appointed by Schuyler to handle distribution throughout the states of Oregon, Washington, and Alaska.

Schuyler noted that both distributors showed immediate excellent sales reaction just as soon as they received their initial sample orders of Game's "Wild Cat" and "Twin Wild Cat" electronic upright amusement games.

Ditchburn-Cole Drink Machines In Europe

LONDON, ENG.—The Ditchburn Organization, this city, in addition to distributing music and games, operates the Cole Products Corporation line of vending machines. Shown above, are two Cole drink machines being unloaded in London for installation at the air terminal Les Invalides, in Paris. The shipment is part of an order for twenty Cole drink machines. Ditchburn has a licensing arrangement with Cole Products Corporation for the manufacture and sale of all Cole machines for England and Europe.

ROCK-OLA

...for dependability
...for maximum profits
...for customer appeal

Again in 1959 Rock-Ola phonographs have proven their outstanding dependability in all types of locations. Factory sales figures show that more operators everyday are making the big switch to Rock-Ola because only Rock-Ola's trouble-free phonographs assure a maximum of plays with a minimum of service.

For the biggest profit from each location, join the switch to Rock-Ola.

M.O.N.Y. 22nd Annual Banquet-Dance Date Changed To Sat. Eve., Nov. 7

NEW YORK—Al Denver, president of the Music Operators of New York, Inc. announced last week that "due to circumstances beyond the control of the association and its staff", the date for the 22nd Annual Banquet of M.O.N.Y. has been changed to November 7.

Denver originally announced several weeks ago that the affair would take place on October 31, at the Commodore Hotel. "Nothing has changed but the date," said Denver, "and we will now have the banquet and dance on Saturday, November 7, at the Commodore Hotel, here in New York. "We have been mulling over several ideas to give the affair an additional atmosphere of pleasure and fun for all who attend and I believe we will come up with a few new ideas that will make everyone happy he attended," continued Denver.

The program for the evening's entertainment includes cocktails and hors d'oeuvres before dinner, the banquet dinner itself, and entertainment to be provided by top recording stars. M.O.N.Y. has signed a prominent orchestra for dancing throughout the evening and into the closing hours.

Subscriptions to the affair are priced at twenty dollars per person.

The association originally polled its members to decide the most popular site for the 22nd annual affair with operators favoring a New York City Hotel.

Advertising solicitations have started to include all levels of the coin machine industry as representatives in the annual journal. Letters and telephone calls are being made to various advertisers in the country.

Denver advised all members of the industry to contact the offices of Music Operators of New York, Inc. as early as possible in order that reservations for tables at the affair be made to the satisfaction of coinmen and their guests.

Auto-Bell Appoints Darlington In S. C.

CHICAGO—Al Warren, sales director of Auto-Bell Novelty Company, this city, announced the appointment last week of Darlington Music Company, Darlington, South Carolina, to distribute Auto-Bell's amusement games throughout the entire state of South Carolina.

"Samples of our Galloping Dominoes were recently shipped out to Darlington Music Company," stated Warren, "and the initial reports indicate to us that we made a fine selection of that firm for South Carolina. Incidentally, Galloping Dominoes is moving well all over the country."

Announcement In Rhyme:

Lillian Cohen A Grandma

NEW YORK—Lillian Cohen, widow of the late Nat Cohen, veteran coinman, announced last week that her daughter Lynn and son-in-law Paul, presented her with a bouncing baby grandson, Nathan David. As is the custom of the Cohen family the announcement was written in rhyme form and reads as follows:

*"There's a New Leight In Our Lives"
On the thirteenth of August in the year '59,
God kissed us with a richness—A ra-diance divine!
Our miniature satelleight weighed 6 pounds 6 ounces complete,
And measured eighteen and one-half inches from his "kepy" to his feet.
Nathan David is music, he's Sweetness, he's Leight!
He's our treasured answer for a Life that is bright.*

Trading Starts As Resort Equipment Is

Exported With New Machines Selling

EASTERN FLASHES

Distributors were already reporting sales of new equipment hinging on trades which weren't due in until after the Labor Day clean-up. Operators eager to revamp routes placed orders on new music and games, trading in equipment that was on summer location spots, but obsolete for the remainder of the year. Of course, distributors, following the cycle of coin business, were awaiting delivery on the trade-ins to fill export orders that should go out this week or next. From the distributor point of view, the export market has always played an important part in the marketing of equipment. The bigger the demand for machines from outside the U.S., the better the deal for the operator on trade-ins, making for more new equipment sales. This is the picture as of this past week and the Fall season shapes up as it usually does—the biggest buying season of the year for operators.

Al Denver and Nash Gordon, Music Operators of New York, Inc., advised that the original announcement of the date for the association's annual affair has been changed to Nov. 7th. Same time, same hotel, the Commodore, same good time promised for all. . . . Al "Senator" Bodkin began receiving replies to the Public Relations letter mailed out soliciting five-dollar membership dues from ops in New York State and the response has been gratifying, states Al. The public relations group met Wed. eve., at the Hotel Astor, to discuss the program for N.Y. State. A bigger turnout than ever was expected for the dinner-meeting affair. (Separate story elsewhere in this issue). Willie Blatt, Music Makers, Inc., Miami, flew into New York with his wife, Sydelle, and his PR man, Paul Daniels, to sit down with Bodkin and discuss the New York program before leaving for Philadelphia. Blatt and his staff are conducting a North-South baseball game play-off between Miami and Philly, with players, between the ages of 7 and 9 years old, being hosted during a one-week tour of Philly and New York, in addition to playing the game for trophies and prizes. Blatt expected to honor the Mayor of Phila. and other officials with appropriate testimonials during ceremonies scheduled to take place throughout the week-long vacation for the kids. The program is part of Willie Blatt's public relations campaign, a year 'round job. . . . Business at Runyon Sales Co. is "really perking along" advises Morris Rood as he takes orders for the new Bally "Moon Raider" gun and "Batting Practice." Louis Wolberg winding up his Tuesday's-off routine next week while Irv "Kempy" Kempner reschedules his post-Labor Day trips to call on every operator in his Westchester area selling new music and games. Myron Sugerman continues to increase export business at the distributor's showrooms with answers to his sales solicitations. Perry Lowengrub reported that collections in the New York City area were steady and that stereo installations on the AMI model "J" were increasing with a bright picture showing up for September sales in the metropolitan area. Louis Schreiber handles the switchboard at Runyon while Muriel Smith "takes a lunch break." . . . Bill Fitzgerald, advertising mgr., AMI, Inc., in from Grand Rapids, Mich., on a business trip covering distributors in this area and nice enough to stop by The Cash Box to say "hello." . . . Al Simon, Albert Simon, Inc., just back from a motor tour of New York, New England and the outlying areas with his son, Dick, scouting colleges and looking for the university that offers the finest scholastic program. Dick completes his senior year at Manhasset High, in June, and by that time will have chosen a college. Dick Simon will play varsity basketball this year for Manhasset High, where his sports record has made his Dad proud of him. Al D'Inzillo, whose vacation in the Blue Ridge Mountains is now a thing of the past, gets back into the swing of things with several good size orders on arcade equipment and Chicago Coin's latest winner, "Bowl Master." . . . Happy Birthday congrats to Fred Iverson, Syracuse, N.Y. and Gene Daddis, Runyon Sales Co., Newark, N.J. . . . The unveiling of the monument in memory of Sam Getlan, vet coinman from this area, will take place on Sun., Sept. 20th, at New Mt. Zion-Hillside Cemetery in Lyndhurst, N. J., advises Lou Getlan, the late Sam's son. . . . Irv Holzman, Black Sales Co., on the road visiting a half-dozen cities including Chicago before arriving back in New York later this week. "Whitey" Druckman busy handling reconditioned equipment and visiting ops in the showroom. . . . Mike Munves, Mike Munves Corp., advises that arcade men throughout the nation have enjoyed a solid season. "Labor Day should be a big weekend for the operators based on previous summer business," says Mike. Joe Munves busy in the parts dept., with plans to attend the Canadian Exposition on Sept. 9th. . . . Willie Aaronson, local op, tours coinrow with a new idea for games manufacturers. Willie spoke with several distributors and the idea merits some consideration, according to the wholesalers. . . . Lou Herman, Mt. Vernon, N.Y., celebrates his birthday this week. Congrats! . . . A note from Lillian Cohen, wife of the late Nat Cohen, to tell us she is a grandmother. Grandson's name is Nathan David, after his popular grandfather. . . . Harry Koeppel, Koeppel Dist. Co., takes a few hours away from the store on business while Hymie takes the wraps off some new Rock-Ola's, just delivered. Steady business has kept the Koeppel brothers active all summer long. . . . Gabe Forman, Sandy Moore Dist. Co., away from the showroom when we call. "Out-to-lunch," advises the staff as all indications show that Wurlitzer "2300's" are moving from the distrib's showrooms. . . . Tom Greco, president, New York State Coin Machine Assoc., calls to advise that elections will be held in Albany, at the DeWitt Clinton Hotel, on Thurs., Sept. 24th, at 4 PM sharp. A regular meeting will be held after elections, states Tom. . . . Nick Melone, American Shuffleboard Corp., Union City, N.J., tells us he feels a lot better after a recent illness and that plans for a big Fall push are underway for the firm's current model. Paul Cusano, president, will be back the day after Labor Day, states Nick. Sol Lipkin, traveling salesman for the firm, is packing again. Big road trip scheduled for the post-Labor Day period.

Mystery of last week solved! As reported in this space last week, Murray Kaye, Atlantic New York Corp., was given a surprise gift of a desk pen set, made from the head of a number 9 iron golf club and inscribed with his name. As of last week, Murray still couldn't find out who the thoughtful gift-giver was, but now it can be told! Larry Feigenbaum, of Albert Simon, Inc., saw the gift in an antique shop on Long Island and couldn't resist. Larry conferred with one of his fellow-workers who followed his instructions and placed it quietly on Murray Kaye's desk when the coinman wasn't looking! "We were browsing in one of the Syosett shops and when I saw the golf club, I thought of Murray Kaye and his love for the game. I'm sure he'll get a laugh out of it," said Larry. He'll get more than a laugh, Larry. By this time, he's dialing your number to personally thank you for the thoughtful gesture.

Production And Shipping Up For Fall

— CHICAGO CHATTER —

While everyone here is hysterically urging the "Go Go White Sox" to rise to spectacular heights, coin machine manufacturers are excitedly telling us about the sudden increase in demand for all types of games, music and vending equipment. Factories are producing games and phonographs as rapidly as they can, and shipping departments are operating at full steam ahead. . . . Art Weinand, Chicago Dynamic's dynamic sales director, exclaims, as he escorts us past the shipping department to the bowling division,—"man! Just look at all those trucks on the dock! The more the merrier!"—Art tells us that everyone was in at the plant last week. Sam Wolberg, Sam Gensburg, Avron Gensburg, Jerry Koci, Harry Glick, Mort Secore, and Ed Levin—and everyone is happy about the release of Chicago Coin's new "Queen Bowler".

Empire Coin's Joe Robbins stopped analyzing the coming pro football season just long enough show us Empire's biggest display of new and used game, music, and vending equipment in years for the big Fall season he, Gil Kitt, and Jack Burns are anticipating. Getting back to football, however, Joe sez he'll manage to attend his usual quota of pro and college games. . . . George Hincker advises that Donald Rockola and Ralph Petri zoomed back home by jet plane from Frankfurt, Germany, after a visit with Alfred A. Adickes, Rock-Ola's distributor in West Germany. Dorothy Schulz, who served for 12 years as Rock-Ola's export manager, resigned last week, and was immediately replaced by ex-service manager Art Janacek. The new service chief at Rock-Ola is Jerome Wiczorek. David Rockola, Hincker, Ed Doris, Kurt Kluever, Les Rieck, Jack Barabash huddled last week to lay plans for Rock-Ola's big Fall sales program. . . . Sam Stern and Sam Lewis very hepped up about Williams Electronic's new gun game "Titan." Lewis related to us that his and Stern's expectations for "Titan" are certainly measuring up. "The gun is an immediate hit all over the country already," he stated.

LES RIECK

Bill DeSelm tells us that Johnny Casola and Roy Krahmer returned last week from the Sparks Specialty showings of United Manufacturing's games and "UPB-100" phonographs and speakers in Birmingham and Mobile, Alabama. United's new "3 Way" bowler is a big hit, according to Bill. . . . There's plenty of excitement over at D. Gottlieb & Company, and it's all about Gottlieb's new 4 player pinball game "Sweet Sioux." Alvin Gottlieb reports sales results were immediate and terrific. Production and shipping are at peak to meet demand all over.

JOE ROBBINS

"This is the kind of game that keeps us happy," sez Alvin. And naturally these feelings are echoed by Dave Gottlieb, Nate Gottlieb, and the ever smiling Judd Weinberg. . . . Another firm high on the new Gottlieb game is National Coin, Gottlieb's distributor in this area, where Joe Schwartz, Mort Levinson, and Ronnie Schwartz are digging in hard to rack up record sales in September. Seeburg's Tom Herrick reports the happy tidings that operators all over the country are becoming more and more interested in Seeburg's "1000" background music unit. This new phase in music gives the operators the opportunity of diversifying their music operation, according to Herrick. He mentioned the fact that operators in various sections of the country are meeting to discuss this new music instrument and its great sales and rental potential. Just recently there was a meeting of operators in New York, and, Tom tells us, the reports were very favorable. Meanwhile production is being pushed hard at the plant on the Seeburg "1000" background music unit. . . . Both Herb Jones and Bill O'Donnell excused themselves, but the action on the longdistance telephones was much too hot and heavy. However, Herb assured us there'll be plenty of news emanating from Bally next week. Art Garvey looking fit as a fiddle these days opines that he's ready for a lusty Fall and Winter.

Joel Stern asks us to drop back to World Wide's showrooms and witness the heavy action on several new games there. Operators are coming in from all parts of the state to visit at World Wide these days. . . . Morrie Wiczer and Wico's stereo engineer Ed Jacobson are headed for Richmond, Virginia, where they'll set up an exhibit of Wico's stereo conversion kit and the new line of metal speakers and speaker enclosures for the Richmond Music Operators Association's big showing September 11 & 12. . . . Fred Minter, Gateway Cooperative Distributors, long distances from Evansville, Indiana that he's entering the premium field to utilize some of the space in his huge showrooms. Meanwhile he's gradually developing his coin business. . . . Coven Music's Irv Ovitz suddenly resorted to pulling the few strands of hair out of his head. It seems that recent brisk activity in games and music sorely depleted the stock, and Irv, aided and abetted by Sid Paris and Coven's prexy Ben Coven, are phoning all over for additional much-needed stock. . . . Clarence Schuyler announced the appointment last week of 2 new distributors for Games, Inc.'s products. Morris Novelty of St. Louis handles the entire state of Missouri, and Northwest Sales of Woodburn, Oregon picked up all of Oregon, Washington State, and Alaska. Ben Axelrod is the manager of Morris, and Marshall McKee heads up the Northwest firm.

SAM LEWIS

Mike Detzek, Champion Distributor's prexy, revealed plans of the huge construction project on his new plant going up on north Milwaukee avenue. The beautiful building is scheduled for completion the end of September. Mike and Irene Detzek are hopeful that everything will go on schedule. Champion's "Ten-Twenty" TV billiard program is growing stronger steadily according to local television polls. . . . Ed Ratajack, AMI's busy man-in-motion out of town on business these days. . . . Dropped in on Paul Huebsch to look over new equipment being readied for release. Paul assures us that what we scanned will assure J. H. Keeney & Company a big Fall and Winter push in all markets. Paul tells us Mr. & Mrs. Roy McGinnis are covering a lot of territory during their current tour through Europe. Roy is mixing business with pleasure on this lengthy sojourn. . . . Eddie Ginsburg and Nate Feinstein inform us that the new showroom setup at Atlas Music is really paying off these days. Operators don't have to walk down a long corridor anymore to get to the samples of Seeburg equipment and used equipment. Nate tells us operators are becoming very interested in Seeburg's new background music unit. It should be a big hit, for it opens new location possibilities for operators.

Al Warren and Zeke Wolf very thrilled about sales on "Galloping Dominoes," Auto-Bell Novelty's new electronic upright game. The firm appointed Darlington Music as Auto-Bell's distributor in South Carolina. . . . Johnny Frantz reports that he's getting ready to release a new game. The wraps are on it just yet, and all the cajoling in the world won't loosen Johnny's tongue until next week. . . . This arcade machine has been a steady seller at Marvel Manufacturing for several years, and just never seems to let up anywhere.

A quick visit to AMI Sales reveals a novel promotion in progress for Fall. Mike Spagnola, the new Ivy League kid, shows us a "rah, rah" college theme complete with banners, pennants and all the campus "window dressings." Mike assured us it's stimulating business because operators are joining the AMI parade. . . . Over at Donan Distributors Mac Brier intros the firm's new office steno, Rita Flood, who's expected to write lots of orders on Bally games. Don Moloney is anxiously awaiting delivery of Bally's new amusement game. . . . A busy distrib last week was First Coin. Operators seen coming and going all day. Joe Kline tells us the flow of visitors is local and out-of-town. . . . That perennial traveler, Herb Perkins, just returned to his office at Purveyor Distributing from a vacation in Canada and the East Coast.

Philippine Music License Still Pending

MANILA, PHILIPPINE ISLANDS—The three-year-old controversy on establishing a license for music machines came up once again before the Committee on Ways and Means of the Municipal Board last week.

The Committee had set a license of P300 per year, but the Philippine Music Guild has been opposing it. The current proposal of the Ways and Means Committee is for a license of P100 per year for music machines in night clubs and P75 for machines in restaurants.

The matter is still being discussed, with some Councilors asking for immediate action, and others requesting further time for study. The president of the board deferred action to a future date.

of the potential customers viewing the Adickes machine with ideas of a purchase. . . . Max Vollmer, Cortina Ltd., Basle 2, Switzerland, Wurlitzer distributor for Western Switzerland was at the fair and commented on the potential of such a show, speaking in particular for the "foreign" markets, of which he emanates. . . . Reports from the fair announced that the 10,000th "Fanfare" music machine will leave the Bingen factory this month, probably for Britain. Henri E. Herbasch, of N.S.N. (the Fanfare manufacturing company) advised that Fanfare exports have reached 18% of the total value (larger in quantity because of price differential) of American world wide export figures for music machines. . . . Beromat, G.M.B.H. and Wulff Apparteban, West Berlin, exhibited new "Harmonic" music machines shown for the first time after eight months of testing. 120 and 200-selections are available in monaural and stereo units. The device is unique in that it is thermostatically controlled for tropical countries where phono records have a tendency to warp. Gunter Wulff managed the exhibit booth with A. Koebke, promotion man for the Wulff firm. . . . Another announcement made at the fair has George Whittaker handling the "Harmonic" line of machines in Great Britain and No. Ireland. Whittaker is forming a separate company to be known as Beromat, Ltd. . . . Visitors at the impressive stand exhibiting the AMI line, under the direction of Helmut Rehbock, G.M.B.H. at the fair included distributors from Greece, Finland, Sweden, Denmark, Switzerland, Austria, Italy and Australia. . . . AMI European chief, Paul Hunger assisted Neuberg during the exhibit. . . . Announcement of the 400-selection phonograph came about from Mr. Mues, manufacturer of the 120-selection "Finale" machine, shown for the first time at the fair. Mues advised that he manufactured a 400-selection prototype. The machine, which Mues managed to get to his exhibit booth just in time for the opening of the fair was a sensation, according to almost everyone in attendance. Herr Talk, prominent coin machine man on the Continent, will visit America with Fred Adickes of Nova to visit American distributors regarding the 400 selection unit and also to purchase equipment from the U.S. distributors.

"Vault Meter" Fall Sales Plans Start

NEWARK, N. J. — Larry Epstein, Vault Meter Corporation of America, Inc., this city, manufacturers of a meter which automatically, "counts, records and stores every coin in a tamper-proof box which only the operator can open", advised that sales and inquiries on the "Vault Meter" have been received from almost every state in the union since the introduction of the meter last July. "Vault Meter" salesman crews are primed to begin heavy travel schedules throughout the United States immediately following Labor Day. The move is part of an overall sales promotion program for the Fall.

Epstein advised that the success of the "Vault Meter" has hinged on a number of sales features. "The meter saves time on location and insures an accurate count for the operator and location owner," stated Epstein.

"The "Vault Meter" has been on test for more than three months," advised Epstein, "and results have been more than gratifying. Operators everywhere have shown interest in the meter and we expect to begin selling the unit to operators of all types machines particularly coffee and drink vending machines very soon," concluded Epstein.

Bally "Challenger" Features Hi-Lo Pins

CHICAGO — Bill O'Donnell, general sales manager, Bally Manufacturing Company, this city, announced that in keeping with the firm's continuous progress in bowler design, the newest Bally bowler, "Challenger", shipped to distributors last week, features the new adjustable up-or-down pins.

"The operator can set pins close to the alley or up off the alley, depending on requirements and preference of each location," stated O'Donnell. "When pins are in up position, the ball clears the bottom of the pins; when pins are lowered, the ball actually hits the pins.

"Either way, of course, the pins are the famous fast fly-away pins, originated by Bally, with the positive action produced by switch-actuators on the surface of the alley.

"Because pins can be raised or lowered, depending on location situations, 'Challenger-Bowler' insures maximum flexibility when the game is moved to another location, and, of course, this flexibility will be a big advantage in re-sale," continued O'Donnell.

"'Challenger-Bowler' is equipped with the new high-speed totalizers that result in 50 per cent faster play and greater earning-power," said O'Donnell.

"Scoring by Official Bowling Rules, 'Challenger-Bowler' is equipped with the popular Lucky Strikes feature, which may be switched on and off, during game, as a skill equalizer. 1 to 6 can play. The game is available in 3 popular lengths, 11 ft., 14 ft., 18 ft. Operators may select choice of 2 coin styles, dime-a-game or 2-games-for-quarter, and choice of 4 in. hard ball or 4 in. rubber ball," concluded O'Donnell.

Distributors Happy Over New Equipment

As Ops Replenish Routes

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

With vacation time still in full-swing, the operators and distributors along Pico Blvd. this week feel that the fast-pace of business, apparent throughout most of the summer, has subsided momentarily, but will bounce back quickly after Labor Day with the biggest grosses of '59 yet to come. . . . At American Coin Machine, Bill Lanzy reports that business has been moving along at a steady clip the past week. Bill also stated they are thinking of setting up a school at American, as the operators have been asking them to do so. The school will be free and anyone interested is invited to attend. . . . At Leuenhagen's "record bar," Paul Baldwin, local promo man for Capitol Records, stopping by with The Bush Boys to spin their new slice, "A Broken Vow." Charlie Adams in with two initial releases on the new Film label, which is co-owned by Gene Autry. The two disks are "You Belong To Me" b/w "Paper Boy," by Norma Lee, and Jeannie Joy's "Pink Banjo" b/w "I'm Ti." Vic Gargano and Don Wayne, owners of the new Inferno diskery, have what looks like a smash with "Ukulele Mambo," featuring Carmen and Don Ralke, according to Mary Solle. Kay Solle feels that Paul Anka has a can't miss in "Put Your Head On My Shoulder," on ABC Paramount. Jackie Wilson's current Brunswick offering, "You Better Know It," could be another big one for the hot artist, says Claire Solle. . . . Jack Simon, at Simon Distributing, returning with Mrs. Simon from their trip to Chicago and the East. Jack informs he bought a good assortment of baseballs, bowlers, and guns while on the trip which will replenish the stock at Simon's. This additional stock has given Simon the best all-around assortment of games and machines they've had all year. Sonny Lomborg says the Dale "Pom Pom" gun is being highly accepted by the arcades and kiddylands. . . . At Paul A. Laymon's, Charlie Daniels states the Rock-Ola phonograph, both stereo and monaural, is moving out at a good clip. Bally's "Batting Practice," says Charlie, which was received only a few weeks ago, is finding ready acceptance from the operators, with several orders already taken. Jimmy Wilkens had been telling everyone that he passed his Red Cross senior life saving and instructors tests, and will be teaching the Boy Scouts to swim in the near future. . . . Hank Tronick, at C. A. Robinson & Co., reports samples of the new Williams "Titan" arrived this week and were enthusiastically received by the operators, which points to a bigger smash hit than its predecessors. Reports now coming in from the field, Hank went on, indicate that the United "League" bowler is duplicating the success of the "Team" bowler. Everyone at Robinson's is expectantly awaiting the arrival of the new Chicago Coin "Playland" rifle gallery, with advance notices indicating another "Big Top" in the making. Hank also said another order was rushed to J. F. Frantz and Co., for a shipment of "Dodge City." Mildred Davis, secretary at Robinson's, leaving on her vacation for "points East." . . . At Minthorne Music, Wayne Davis writes that he and the family are enjoying themselves thoroughly in Vancouver, British Columbia. Ralph Cragen informs they've just received a new shipment of the coffee bar machines, and are busy filling orders on them. Matt Nordberg was in the Bakersfield area last week and brought back a number of orders. Ralph stated they had just completed a deal for a carload of Seeburg stereo phonographs. . . . Marshall Ames, at Badger Sales, states the new AMI "J" stereo phonograph has been selling very well the past week. Bill Happel back from his vacation in Milwaukee and comments that he and Mrs. Happel had a wonderful time, but the humidity there was too much for them and they're glad to be back. Marshall, accompanied by three of his friends, is going to Mexico for three days to do some fishing. Rocky Nesselroad happy over the turnout for the last AMI Service School. . . . At Norty's Music Center, Norty Beckman predicting big things for Ray Peterson's follow-up to his hit "The Wonder Of You." Ray's new lid is titled "Come And Get It," on RCA Victor. Louis Baruch says, from the sound of things The Crests have another strong contender for the hit ranks with their Coed offering, "The Angel Listened In." The Falcons could make it two in a row with their current Unart effort, "You're Mine," according to Frances Hoffman. . . . Gabe Orland, at California Music, on vacation with his family and driving to the Grand Canyon. Gabe is expected to be back on the job in a week or ten days. Bill Page, national sales rep for Angel Records, stopping by to visit with Sam and discuss some of the new releases. George Steiner, West Coast sales rep for Capitol, also dropped in to play some of the label's current outings. Buddy Robinson says King Cole's Capitol disk, "Cu Cu Rru Cu Cu Paloma," could be headed for the top judging from the great initial reaction. . . . Some of the visiting operators seen on Pico this week were: Charlie Koski, Long Beach; John Williams, Thermal; Ray Berra, San Bernardino; I. B. Gayer, San Bernardino; Bill Black, Bakersfield; Mr. & Mrs. Fred Allen, Bakersfield; Lee Nelson, Santa Ana; "Pop" Burris, Montebello; Walt Cook, Palos Verdes; Jim Diacos, Oxnard; Bill Bradley, Covina; Ray Brandenburg, La Habra; Del Hungerford, Duarte; John Miller, Los Alamitos; Walter Quam, Ojai.

"Your Host" Is Wurlitzer Stereo

BUFFALO, N. Y. — The newest addition to the chain of "Your Host" restaurants, a chain of restaurants operated in Buffalo and on the Niagara Frontier, offers the latest in the way of music. It has been equipped with a new Wurlitzer stereo Model "2300" phonograph, installed by the Lewis Music Company, North Tonawanda, New York.

The music system is a specially engineered unit, designed by Wurlitzer. It consists of a 200-selection hideaway and fourteen wall boxes, eight boxes in booths and six counter-mounted at eye level.

Ceiling speakers are placed so that patrons hear the "A" and "B" channel of the stereophonic records with high clarity anywhere in the location.

Joe Lewis, who operates a large music route in the area, and is president of the Lewis Music Company, states that earnings are proving the desirability of stereo in fast turn-over mass feeding locations. "Customer reaction has been gratifying," stated Lewis, "and the acceptance of stereophonic music in a location such as a 'Your Host' type outlet has proven that our tests have been successful."

Pictured above, A. J. Durrenberger, president of "Your Host" restaurants, a chain of twenty-three outlets, and Joe Lewis discuss the operation of a Wurlitzer 200-selection counter box.

N. Y. State Association Elections Sept. 24

General Meeting To Be Held At Same Time

BEACON, N. Y. — Tom Greco, president, New York State Coin Machine Association, Inc., this city, advised last week that the association will hold its general meeting and annual elections on Thursday, September 24.

The meeting and elections will be held at the DeWitt Clinton Hotel, Albany, New York. The meeting will start at 4:00 P.M. in the main dining room on the first floor of the hotel, stated Greco.

"We cordially invite all coinmen in the New York State area to attend regardless of whether they are members or not. Non-members are invited to sit in on the meeting to see just how we operate. It is a good opportunity for non-members to obtain a better understanding of our association and its workings," said Greco.

"Of course, after the meeting the non-members will be asked to leave while the elections are held. Following the elections we expect to have refreshments for everyone," continued Greco.

Greco pointed out that among the general topics of discussion for the meeting will be problems regarding taxes, legislation, and public relations programs.

The entire slate of officers are up for re-election, including Tom Greco, president; vice-presidents Bob Charles, Mike Garamano, Lindy Nardone and Pat Marcy; treasurer, Amelia McCarthy; secretary, Max Cohen, and the board of directors.

THIS WEEK'S USED MACHINE QUOTATIONS

How To Use "The Cash Box Price Lists"

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the quotation of high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Cash Box Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. "The Cash Box Price Lists" act exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Cash Box Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices may be very widely divergent. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, and condition of equipment must be taken into consideration. (Some equipment offered by outstanding firms, having a reputation for shipping completely reconditioned machines, will be offered at higher prices than others, due to the added cost of reconditioning.) "The Cash Box Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: "The Cash Box Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price quoted for the week; Second price listed is highest price quoted.

FLY-AWAY PINS

New adjustable HI-LO PINS may be set close to alley or up off of alley, depending on requirements and preference of each location. When pins are in up position, ball clears pins; when pins are lowered, ball actually hits pins.

Either way pins are the famous fast fly-away pins originated by Bally with positive action insured by switch-actuators on surface of alley.

HI-LO PINS insure maximum flexibility for location-changes and re-sale.
